PRACTICE POLICY

Practices are held at the Sam Viersen Gymnastics Center, directly north and across Imhoff Street from the Lloyd Noble Center. Practices are typically open to the media; however, those who wish to attend must obtain clearance through Lindsey Magness in the Athletics Communications Office prior to the start of practice. Practice generally runs from 1-5 p.m. The best time to conduct interviews is immediately following practice.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Media credentials for home contests at the Lloyd Noble Center should be requested no later than one day prior to the event. Credentials will be issued to working media only. All requests should be directed to Lindsey Magness in the Athletics Communications Office at (972) 49-3018 or by email to lindseymorrison@ou.edu.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Post-meet press conferences will take place in the interview room located off the south tunnel of the Lloyd Noble Center after head coach K.J. Kindler dismisses her athletes. Official score sheets will be available at the scorer's table.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Non-post-meet interview requests for athletes and coaches must be arranged through Lindsey Magness in the Athletics Communications Office. All requests should be submitted at least one day in advance of the desired interview time.

CHAMPIONSHIP EXPERIENCE

COMPETE LIKE A CHAMPION
Centrally located in the heart of America, the Lloyd Noble Center features some of best collegiate athletics in the nation.

The home of OU men's and women's basketball and women's gymnastics, the Lloyd Noble Center's primary tenants have accumulated a combined eight Final Four appearances, four national championships and 47 conference titles.

Since its opening in 1975, nearly five million fans have come through the LNC doors in anticipation of a Sooner victory.

OU is to 108-4 inside Lloyd Noble Center since the arrival of head coach K.J. Kindler in 2007. The Sooners have posted 32 consecutive victories dating back to 2014 and the 2021 senior class has never lost a home meet in their career.

The Lloyd Noble Center has been host to some of the best gymnastics in the nation. The Big 12 Championships were most recently held at the LNC in 2019. In 2023, the Sooners will be one of four host sites for the NCAA Regionals.

TRAIN LIKE A CHAMPION
Champions need a championship-caliber space to train and the OU women's gymnastics program has just that at the Sam Viersen Gymnastics Center.

One of the nation's premier collegiate training facilities, Sam Viersen is one of only a handful freestanding co-ed college gyms in the country. The facility was overhauled in 2010, including a 7,000 square-foot addition, and improvements have continued to be made to ensure that OU gymnasts have everything they need to be successful.

New graphics were installed in 2016 to showcase the success of the program, highlighting the national championships and All-American athletes who competed for Oklahoma.

With an addition and renovation in the future for the Sam Viersen Gymnastics Center, the University of Oklahoma is working toward creating an amazing facility for current and future gymnasts who choose to represent the Crimson and Cream.

The new space will greatly benefit the student-athletes, adding a team lounge, upgrading the training room and adding a room designated for conditioning.
"The addition of the locker rooms, team lounge, training room, wet room spa, massage room, leotard showroom, theater and fitness center will elevate our facility to rival the best the NCAA has to offer," head coach K.J. Kindler said.

"We are so fortunate for the support of Joe Castiglione and his unwavering motivation to push us forward. Our former and current student-athletes earned this amazing facility and the upgrade for future Sooners is a legacy they leave behind. Thank you to everyone who has and will contribute to this much needed capital project."

LIVE LIKE A CHAMPION
Opened in July of 2013, Headington Hall houses 380 OU students, including 180 student-athletes. The facility is named in honor of former OU tennis player Tim Headington, one of many OU alumni who gave generously to the project.

Located on the corner of Jenkins Ave. and Lindsey St., southeast and across the street from Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the facility boasts apartment-style accommodations in two- and four-bedroom units. Each suite features at least two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a kitchenette and a living room. Suites come prefurnished with modular couches and ottomans so students can set-up their new home just how they want it. The building also includes central dining, computer labs and study rooms, as well as a faculty-in-residence unit.

The $75 million facility, which replaced Bud Wilkinson Hall, was funded by the University of Oklahoma Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The first floor features Einstein's Bagels, Bee Healthy Café and Beauty and Designz Studio Lounge, with room for future development.

The facility is six stories tall and approximately 230,000 square feet, giving it a significant campus presence. It is designed in the style of the University's historic buildings, as well as modern additions.

Former Sooners Adrian Peterson and Sam Bradford made substantial donations to Headington Hall. The Sam Bradford Training Table is a state-of-the-art dining facility that fulfills the dietary and nutritional needs of all OU student-athletes, not just the residents of Headington Hall, in a vastly expanded modern space.
Multiple cooking stations give our talented chefs every opportunity to dazzle your taste buds. Many of the tasty dishes at Wagner Dining Hall come from a menu prepared by OU Athletics' own nutritionist, and are especially designed for athletic performance needs. Fresh vegetables, salad bars and fresh fruit are plentiful. To ensure proper hydration, the drink station includes numerous options.

RECOVER LIKE A CHAMPION
The Oklahoma Athletics Department feels a strong responsibility to help its athletes reach and maintain their optimum health and achieve conditioning goals. For this reason, OU has developed excellent training and conditioning programs to lessen the possibility of injuries.

Jenn Richardson is responsible for the daily care, treatment, rehab and prevention of injuries for the women's gymnastics program. She enters her 18th season at OU in 2024.

Renovations are complete at Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. The project included a new strength and conditioning room, training room, nutrition center, meeting rooms and the equipment operation. Student-athletes from all 21 OU sports will benefit from the space. The OU sports medicine department is expanding and nutritional offerings are growing, which means it can maintain health and rehabilitate at the highest level.

FUEL LIKE A CHAMPION
After serving two and a half years as a graduate assistant and intern with the Arkansas Razorbacks, and another three years as an intern with Kansas State, Herkelman assumed the role of Assistant Director of Sports Nutrition for the Sooners, where she primarily works with both the men's and women's basketball programs, and women's gymnastics.

A licensed dietitian, Herkelman is responsible for keeping OU's student-athletes fueled for success that stretches beyond the competitive field.

She and her staff educate the Sooners using a three-pillared philosophy that emphasizes the importance of proper fueling. The goal is to optimize performance by maximizing adaptations to training, boosting recovery time and enhancing body composition. A successful nutrition plan will increase energy levels and decrease injury risk while leading to a healthier and improved lifestyle.

FLAGSHIP UNIVERSITY

Established in 1890, the University of Oklahoma is the state's flagship public research university and leader in research, health care and academic activity impacting the state of Oklahoma, nation and world. Guided by its fundamental purpose of changing lives, OU upholds its core traditions of creating opportunity for the leaders of tomorrow, building a culture of inclusivity and advancing society through cutting-edge research discoveries.

For well over a century, generations of students have found purpose and meaning through an OU education, and Oklahomans and people all across the world have benefited from the university's ingenuity and resourcefulness.

The Norman campus enrolls more than 28,000 undergraduate and graduate students, the Health Sciences Center in Oklahoma City enrolls more than 3,200 students and the OU-Tulsa campus enrolls more than 1,100.

Over the last two years, the University of Oklahoma has ambitiously pursued the fulfillment of its first Strategic Plan in over a generation. "Lead On, University" aims to position OU as a top-tier public research university that fosters a culture of innovation, excellence, and inclusivity. Since the Plan's unveiling, OU has instituted structural changes like adding premier freshman housing, the merger of OU Health, joining the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and more.

Research at OU has not only recovered from the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, but its growth has also exceeded the goals set forth in the Strategic Plan, which calls for 7% to 10% annual growth in research expenditures over seven years, relative to FY2019. As of FY2021, research expenditures reached over $387.2 million university-wide, an increase of 25.3% since the FY2019 benchmark.

With approximately 4,600 students, OU's Class of 2025 comprised the largest, most diverse, and most academically qualified class in school history. In the entering class, 38% of students identified as minorities, and one in four were first-generation college students. The class also had an average high school GPA of 3.66, the highest ever of an incoming class.

Supporting Oklahoma's workforce is one of OU's key priorities. OU announced the launch of the OU Polytechnic Institute, a new school in Tulsa that will focus on a high-demand, advanced and applied technology-based education to meet the region's economic needs. Also, OU significantly expanded the size of its Bachelor of Science in Nursing class by accepting all qualified applicants, allowing more students the opportunity to pursue a nursing career and, in turn, building up the state's nursing workforce at a time when nurses are needed more than ever.

In 2021, OU was the only public university in Oklahoma to be selected as a Best Value College by the Princeton Review which includes only 1.2 percent of all U.S. four-year universities.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

CONFERENCE HONORS
Nine members of the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team were named to the 2024 Winter Academic All-Conference Team, including four with perfect 4.0s.

In each of head coach K.J. Kindler's 18 seasons at the helm of the OU program, at least five Sooners have received academic accolades from the Big 12. Kindler's teams have now earned a total of 157 such awards in her time at Oklahoma.

SCHOLASTIC ALL-AMERICANS
Seventeen members of the 2024 Oklahoma women's gymnastics team were named Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association Scholastic All-America Award winners in August 2024.

The Sooners posted a 3.6692 team GPA for the 2023-24 academic year. A program record nine student-athletes posted perfect 4.0 GPAs during the 2023-24 academic year, including Bell Johnson, Julianne Fehring, Katherine LeVasseur, Meilin Sullivan, Quinn Smith, Sheridan Ramsey, Caitin Kirkpatrick, Caitlin Smith and Keira Wells.

OU has now captured at least five spots on the Scholastic All-America list for 18 consecutive seasons, all under head coach K.J. Kindler. Since her arrival at OU prior to the 2007 season, her gymnasts have collected a total of 178 awards from the WCGA.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS
Eight OU gymnasts have earned one of the most prestigious academic honors, earning All-America accolades from College Sports Communicators (CSC). The Academic All-America program recognizes athletes success on and off the field.

In 2021, Anastasia Webb becamse the first gymast since 2014 to earn All-America honors. Webb joined Lara Albright (2014), Rebecca Clark (2013), Megan Fergusen (2012), Haley DeProspero (2008. 2009) and Brittney Koncak-Schumann (2006, 2007).

In 2023, two more Sooners joined this exclusive group with Olivia Trautman earning first-team honors and Danielle Sievers earning second-team recognition. This was the first time in program history that multiple gymnasts earned academic all-america honors in the same season.

SULLIVAN EARNS ELITE 90 AWARD...AGAIN!
Senior Meilin Sullivan was named the 2024 NCAA Elite 90 Award Winner, marking the fourth straight season that an OU gymnast has taken home the award. Sullivan also earned the award in 2023, joining Emma LaPinta as a two-time winner.

In 2021, LaPinta was the first OU gymnast to earn the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Sullivan is just the fifth Sooner to ever recieve the award joining LaPinta, Lily Miyazaki (women's tennis, 2017-18), C.J. Cole (men's basketball, 2015-16) and Kim Moldenhauer (rowing, 2012-13).

The Elite 90, an award founded by the NCAA, recognizes the true essence of the student-athlete by honoring the individual who has reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level in his or her sport, while also achieving the highest academic standard among his or her peers.

The Elite 90 is presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's championships.
Sullivan is a three-time WCGA Academic All-American and was named to the 2022 Academic All-Big 12 First Team.

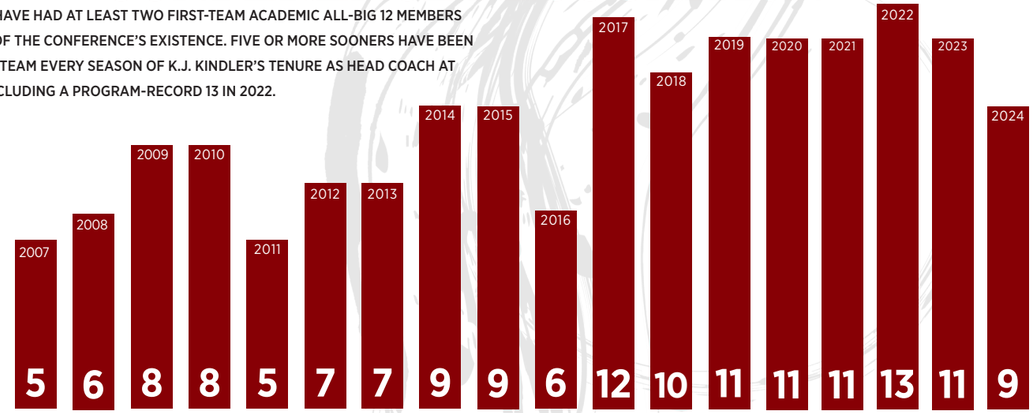
LEVASSEUR ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT
Katherine LeVasseur was one of seven University of Oklahoma student-athletes who were selected to the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District At-Large Division I Teams in 2024.

LeVasseur, a senior from San Antonio, Texas, earned CSC Academic All-District honors for the second straight year. She placed third on uneven bars at the NCAA Championships and earned All-America status on the event, and earned regular season All-America accolades in the all-around and on vault from the WCGA.

A 2024 graduate with a degree in health and exercise science, she is a three-time Academic All-Big 12 first-team selection and four-time WCGA Scholastic All-American.

CONFERENCE RECOGNITION

THE SOONERS HAVE HAD AT LEAST TWO FIRST-TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 MEMBERS ALL 24 YEARS OF THE CONFERENCE'S EXISTENCE. FIVE OR MORE SOONERS HAVE BEEN NAMED TO THE TEAM EVERY SEASON OF K.J. KINDLER'S TENURE AS HEAD COACH AT OKLAHOMA, INCLUDING A PROGRAM-RECORD 13 IN 2022.



2014, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022, 2023 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS | 20 CONFERENCE TITLES | 212 ALL-AMERICANS

BOOMER SOONER

THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA HAS A LONG AND STORIED HISTORY. THE RICH TRADITION HAS GIVEN BIRTH TO SOME OF THE MOST RECOGNIZED PAGEANTRY IN ALL OF COLLEGE ATHLETICS. HERE IS A LOOK AT THE ORIGIN OF SOME OF THE ELEMENTS THAT CREATE THE WONDERFUL ATMOSPHERE SO UNIQUE TO OU.

SOONERS

College sports fans are hard-pressed to find a nickname that is as unique and as tied in to a state's history as a Sooner. The University of Oklahoma is the only school known as Sooners and those who claim that they are Sooners say it with pride.

The Oklahoma Territory opened with the Land Run of 1889. Settlers from across the globe, seeking free land, made their way to the prairies of the plains to stake their claim. One of the few rules to claiming a lot of land was that all participants were to start at the same time, on the boom of a cannon. All settlers who started then were labeled as "Boomers" and the ones who went early were called "Sooners."

OU athletic teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. The university actually derived its name from a pep club called "The Sooner Rooters." The success of University of Oklahoma athletics teams over the years has made the nickname synonymous with winning.

BOOMER SOONER

One of the most recognizable college fight songs in the country, Boomer Sooner immediately evokes enthusiasm from OU fans and sends chills down the spines of those who dare to oppose them.

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's Boola Boola but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's I'm a Tarheel Born and the two combined to form today's university fight song. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of Boomer Sooner to national popularity.

BOOMER SOONER, BOOMER SOONER
BOOMER SOONER, BOOMER SOONER
BOOMER SOONER, BOOMER SOONER
BOOMER SOONER, OK U!
OKLAHOMA, OKLAHOMA
OKLAHOMA, OKLAHOMA
OKLAHOMA, OK U!
I'M A SOONER BORN AND SOONER BRED
AND WHEN I DIE, I'LL BE SOONER DEAD
RAH OKLAHOMA, RAH OKLAHOMA
RAH OKLAHOMA, OK U!

MASCOTS

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

During OU football and baseball games from 1915-1928, Mex the Dog wore a red sweater with a letter "O" on the side. Mex died of old age on April 30, 1928, and he was so popular among students and faculty that the university closed for his funeral and procession on May 2, 1928.

In the fall of 2005, the OU Athletics Deparment introduced costumed mascots. The new characters will act as an extension of the Sooner Schooner and its horses to be enjoyed by fans, especially children, at all OU athletics contests. The costumes feature traditional collegiate gear as part of their regular uniform, but will don team uniforms for football and men's and women's basketball. They were voted "Most Collegiate" by the Universal Cheerleading Association (UCA).

CRIMSON AND CREAM

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet, the only woman on the faculty, was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body.

The student body approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners, badges and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms and all public places; however, local merchants could not supply the demand.

Even though the school colors have evolved to red and white over the years, you can ask any self-respecting Sooner what the colors are and they will proudly announce "Crimson and Cream."

On gamedays, a sea of crimson rolls through OU's home venues and all Sooners are urged to wear the official colors to show the rest of the country what school spirit and Sooner Pride is all about.

PRIDE OF OKLAHOMA

The Pride of Oklahoma Marching Band has been supporting Sooner Spirit for more than a century. Unlike many other college bands, which began as military drill units, the Pride of Oklahoma had its beginnings as a pep band.

In the early years of the 1900s, both townspeople of Norman and students of OU participated in a band that played for football games. Professor John Merrill started the first band in 1901, which was composed mostly of townspeople and disbanded after each football season. Lloyd Curtis, a cornetist, founded the first continuous student band in 1904.

Today, the 300-member Pride of Oklahoma has members representing virtually every college and major on campus. The Pride of Oklahoma stands for excellence in musicianship, academics, school spirit, and commitment to our role in the surrounding community.

Boomer Sooner rings out at the end of each rehearsal, and that song is the defining element of the University of Oklahoma. Maybe that is why Sooner fans love the band so much. Not much can compare to the first "go-go" at a football game when the Pride of Oklahoma marches the interlocking OU down the field playing Boomer Sooner.

OU CHANT

The OU Chant is a loyalty song that is sung before every home football game, before and after every men's and women's basketball games and at the end of many athletic and university functions.

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant - a symbolic gesture that shows those who do not know what it means to be a Sooner, the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners.

The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.

THE CITY OF NORMAN

In 1870, the United States Land Office contracted with a professional engineer to survey much of Oklahoma territory. Abner E. Norman, a young surveyor, became chairman of the central survey area in Indian Territory. The surveyor's crew burned the words "Norman's Camp" into an elm tree near a watering hole to taunt their younger supervisor. When the "Sooners" (those who headed west before the official Land Run date, April 22, 1889) and the other settlers arrived in the heart of Oklahoma, they kept the name "Norman."

Norman is an ever-changing city of more than 120,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma landrush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and well-educated city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents desired to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community. It was recently acknowledged as one of the most progressive cities in Oklahoma and the Norman Public School system was recognized as the top school system in the state.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit." Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletic events.

In the last seven years alone, Norman has served as host of the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship, an NCAA men's golf regional, NCAA softball regionals, NCAA men's and women's gymnastics regionals, NCAA women's tennis regionals, NCAA track and field regional, NCAA soccer first rounds, NCAA women's basketball regionals and the men's basketball National Invitation Tournament (NIT). In addition, the Big 12 Conference Men's and Women's Tennis, Track and Field, Wrestling, Women's Golf, and Women's Gymnastics Championships were held in Norman.

Cultural activities are unlimited in Norman, making it the ideal backdrop for the University of Oklahoma. As home to people of all ethnic and educational backgrounds, the city has something to offer everyone. Norman is home to a variety of enriching events and attractions, including the Sooner Theater, which hosts a series of entertaining theatrical performances produced by locally-based talent and touring companies.

The $44 million Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History, a state-of-the-art facility designed to display a collection of historical and natural science items that trace the southwest's development since prehistoric times, opened in May 2000. History buffs will also enjoy the Cleveland Country Historical House which holds exhibits relating to the development of this area of the state.

For art enthusiasts, the Fred Jones Jr. Memorial Art Center houses permanent collections, nationally and world-renowned traveling exhibits as well as a yearly student art show. The museum has recently added the Weitzenhoffer Collection of French Impressionist paintings - the single most important gift of art ever given to a U.S. public university.

Maintaining a progressive approach to the future while remembering its history, Norman continues to be a well-balanced community, proud to be the home of University of Oklahoma.

OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the OU campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position as the center of the state. Because of this central location, OKC has become known as the home of America's Western heritage.

OKC was born on the afternoon of April 22, 1889, when the central portion of what is now Oklahoma was opened to settlement by presidential proclamation. Thousands crossed the bord-ers of "unassigned lands" at the sound of gunfire at high noon. Never before or since has such a "run" occurred anywhere on the earth.

By the time the dust had settled on that historic day, many people had staked their claim at "Oklahoma Station," an area which was destined to become Oklahoma City, a leading city in America. In 1911, OKC officially became the capital after a statewide election moved the state seal from Guthrie.

Named one of the 50 Best Places to Travel in 2020 by Travel + Leisure, OKC offers all of the culture, cuisine, attractions and amenities you'd expect in a modern metropolis. The city features 14 unique districts and offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country. Sprawling across 625 square miles of America's heartland, making it the nation's third-largest city by land area, the city's metro population numbers 1.4 million — a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It is home of an NBA team in the Oklahoma City Thunder, who played in the NBA Finals in just its fourth season in OKC and has produced two league MVPs. The city is also home to three minor league teams and hosts the NCAA Women's College World Series and Big 12 Baseball Championship. In addition, the city has hosted numerous PGA and Senior PGA TOUR events.

The Thunder call the Paycom Center in downtown OKC home. The sparkling arena hosted the 2014 NCAA Volleyball Final Four, in addition to major musical acts like Justin Timberlake, Bruno Mars, Eric Church, Ariana Grande and many more.

In 2025, Paycom Center will host the Sprouts Collegiate Quad, Jan. 10-11. The second year of the event will feature three quad meets taking place over two days with all three meets presented on ESPN platforms.

The Sooners won the inaugural Sprouts Collegiate Quad in 2024, besting LSU, Utah and UCLA inside the Maverick Center in West Valley City, Utah.

The Oklahoma City Dodgers, 1996 American Associate champions (then as the Oklahoma City 89ers), are the Triple-A baseball affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers. The team plays in the 13,000-plus seat Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark, one of the plushest venues in all of minor league sports. The ballpark served as host to a 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007 NCAA baseball regionals and has hosted the Big 12 Baseball Championship on many occasions.

OKLAHOMA GYMNASTICS

BRIGHT LIGHTS, BIG CITY

NO. 1 OU AT SUPER 16 | 1ST/4 (197.850)

The Sooners opened the 2024 season at the Mean Girls Super 16 Gymnastics Championship, posting an incredible 197.850 in their first meet of the year. One of just four teams to post a mark of 197-plus during opening weekend, the Sooners soared to victory over No. 6 Michigan, No. 9 Kentucky and No. 11 Michigan State. OU posted an impressive 49.625 on the uneven bars, led by 9.95s from senior Ragan Smith and sophomore Faith Torrez.

Torrez had a breakout first meet, winning the all-around and setting a career-high with a 39.625. The sophomore also won the event title on the beam with a 9.95. Smith shared the beam title with Torrez, while junior Jordan Bowers won the floor title with a 9.925 as one of just two athletes to post a 9.9-plus on floor at the event. Senior Katherine LeVasseur competed in the all-around for the first time in her career, posting a 39.400 in her debut. The Sooners had four athletes in the all-around as senior Audrey Davis (39.500) and Bowers (39.600) also competed on all four events.

The meet saw the collegiate debuts of freshmen Hannah Scheible and Keira Wells with Scheible sticking her handspring front pike cold for a 9.9, while Wells was solid on vault and beam to help lead the Sooners to the third-best opening score in program history.

BEST OF THE BEST

NO. 1 OU AT SPROUTS COLLEGIATE QUAD | 1ST/4 (197.900)

At the inaugural Sprouts Collegiate Quad meet in West Valley City, Utah, the Sooners showed why they were a force to be reckoned with in a clash of titans. The highly anticipated podium meet featured the No. 1 Sooners alongside No. 2 Utah, No. 5 LSU and No. 12 UCLA. The Sooners took the lead after the first rotation and never looked back, posting a 197.900 in the victory.

Audrey Davis was named the team MVP after posting an impressive 39.625 in the all-around that included a near-perfect 9.975 on bars. Faith Torrez notched a 39.600 in the all-around, highlighted by a stunning beam routine and a stuck dismount for a 9.925. Katherine LeVasseur set a career high in the all-around with a 39.525 as three of the four Sooner all-around competitors went 39.500 or better on the day.

OU saw the debut of senior transfer Soraya Hawthorne on floor as she energized the crowd with her Earth, Wind and Fire routine. Returning from injury, Dani Sievers made her return to the leadoff spot on bars with a 9.875.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH

NO. 1 OU AT DENVER QUAD
1ST/4 (198.325)

Traveling to Denver, Colo., for the third quad meet of the year, the Sooners became the first team to put up a 198-plus score in 2024 with a 198.325 at the Denver Quad featuring No. 10 Denver, No. 11 UCLA and Stanford.

Jordan Bowers had a sensational performance, earning a 39.775 in the all-around and posting at least a 9.925 on all four events. Katherine LeVasseur notched a new season-best in the all-around with a 39.675 as she nailed her Yurchenko 1.5 to take home the vault title with a 9.95.

Balance beam was the highlight of the meet as OU posted a 49.725 on the event to seal the victory by more than a full point. Audrey Davis, settling comfortably into her leadoff position, started things off with a bang and a 9.95. Faith Torrez and Ragan Smith were nearly perfect with matching 9.975s, while LeVasseur added a season-best 9.9. Jordan Bowers 9.925 insured that the Sooners counted only marks of 9.9 or better in the rotation.

HOME SWEET HOME

NO. 1 OU VS. NO. 12 DENVER
197.775-197.150

After three weeks away to start the season, the Sooners returned to the friendly confines of Lloyd Noble Center and a season opener record crowd of 8,402 fans. Facing conference foe Denver for the second week in a row, OU claimed a 197.775-197.150 victory to remain undefeated.

Junior Jordan Bowers won the bars title with a 9.975 and shared the floor title with teammate Faith Torrez after scoring a 9.95 each. Ragan Smith won the beam title for the second week in a row with a near-perfect 9.975. Bowers posted a 39.700 in the all-around, her second straight week earning a 39.700-plus. Katherine LeVasseur earned a 39.500 in her fourth time competing all four events.

Despite a slow start on vault and the Sooners trailing for the first time in 2024, the team responded in a big way with a 49.600 on bars, highlighted by near perfection from Bowers in the anchor spot. A strong beam rotation that saw Smith earn yet another near-perfect score kept the Sooners in the lead as they headed to the final rotation. On floor, the Sooners pulled away behind a season-high 9.875 from Soraya Hawthorne and matching 9.95s from Torrez and Bowers.

DESERT PERFECTION

NO. 1 OU AT ARIZONA STATE
1ST/3 (198.375)

Jordan Bowers secured the first perfect 10 of the year for the Sooners and the bars squad tied the program and NCAA record on the event with a 49.825 in a 198.375 victory over Arizona State and No. 2 California in Tempe, Ariz. OU matched its program record on bars, set in 2022 against Michigan, after a lights-out third rotation. The Sooners counted no score lower than 9.95 as multiple Sooners set a season high. Bowers took home the event title on bars with her perfect mark, floor with a 9.975 and the all-around with a 39.675. All four Sooner all-around competitors notched at least a 39.600 with Katherine LeVasseur earning a 39.650 and Torrez and Audrey Davis earning matching 39.625s.

In second place at the halfway point, the Sooners responded by posting their program record score on bars. Dani Sievers started the rotation with an amazing routine and stuck dismount for a season-high 9.95. In the No. 2 spot, LeVasseur showed off her stunning handstands and another stuck dismount for a 9.95 of her own. Torrez was exceptional with a stuck double layout for a 9.875. In the No. 4 spot, Smith showed off a stuck double layout dismount for a 9.95. Davis kept the sticks coming after a nearly perfect routine for a 9.975 in the No. 5 spot to set up the perfect 10 for Bowers.

LET THE GAMES BEGIN

OKLAHOMA QUAD MEET
1ST/4 (198.450)

Back in front of their home crowd, the Sooners used a 49.750 on floor to close out an incredible meet against BYU, Utah State and TWU inside Lloyd Noble Center. Jordan Bowers won the all-around after an incredible night that included two near-perfect scores as she posted a 39.750. Katherine LeVasseur broke 39.700 in the all-around for the first time with a career-high 39.725. Faith Torrez earned a 39.575 and senior Audrey Davis earned a 39.500. OU swept the event titles on the night with Bowers and LeVasseur sharing the vault title with matching 9.975s. On bars, Bowers took home the title with another 9.975. Torrez and Ragan Smith shared the beam title with 9.95s and LeVasseur took home the floor title with a 9.975.

The highlight of the meet was the floor rotation which saw OU post the second-highest score in program history on the event. Leading off the final rotation was Davis with a 9.925 to tie her career high. In the No. 2 spot, Bell Johnson earned a season-high 9.9 with her Barbie-themed routine. With her Taylor Swift mashup, Smith earned a 9.95 in the No. 3 spot. LeVasseur set a career-high with a near perfect floor routine for a 9.975 as she showed off her incredible full-in. Torrez added a 9.95 in the No. 5 spot thanks to her stunning double layout. Bowers anchored with a 9.95 of her own as she nailed her sky-high double pike.

METROPLEX MAGIC

NO. 1 OU AT METROPLEX CHALLENGE 1ST/4 (198.300)

Ragan Smith was perfect on beam and the Sooners posted their fourth mark of 198-plus with an incredible 198.300 at the Metroplex Challenge on February 17. The Sooners took down No. 2 Cal (197.4000), No. 16 Arkansas (196.850) and Washington (196.450) inside the Fort Worth Convention Center. OU won its sixth-straight Metroplex Challenge, dating back to 2019. Smith earned the sixth perfect score of her career and first of 2024 on balance beam. Smith's was the second perfect score of the season for the Sooners as Jordan Bowers recorded one on Feb. 2 on the uneven bars.

The Sooners swept at least a share of every event title starting with Bowers taking home the all-around with a 39.675. Keira Wells won the vault title with a 9.925. Bowers and Audrey Davis shared the bars titles with matching near-perfect 9.975s. Smith won the beam title with her perfect 10. On floor, there was a three-way tie as Bowers, Smith and Faith Torrez. In the all-around, Davis matched her career high with an impressive 39.650 for a new season high. Torrez earned a new career high, tying Davis with a 39.650. Katherine LeVasseur finished with a 39.500 as all four Sooners finished in the top five on the night.

RECORD BREAKERS

NO. 1 OU VS. WEST VIRGINIA
198.675-195.550

Ragan Smith achieved perfection for the second-straight week and the Sooners broke the all-time program scoring record with a 198.675 to defeat West Virginia (195.550) on Feb. 23. Along with their overall scoring record, the Sooners tied the program record on beam with a 49.800, punctuated by Smith's 10.0. With her seventh perfect score on beam, Smith tied Sooner legend Maggie Nichols for most career perfect 10s in program history on the event. Smith has now recorded at least two perfect 10s on beam in each of the last three seasons.

OU swept the event titles on the night, highlighted by multiple career highs. Jordan Bowers took home the all-around title with a career best 39.800, becoming just the third OU gymnast to ever post a 39.800+ in the all-around (Maggie Nichols, Anastasia Webb). Bowers also took home the bars and floor titles with matching 9.975s. Faith Torrez, who earned a career high 39.775 in the all-around, took home the vault title with a 9.925. Smith took home the beam title with her 10.0. Katherine LeVasseur posted an impressive 39.700 in the all-around and Audrey Davis notched a 39.600 as all four OU all-around competitors recorded marks of 39.600 or better in the same meet.

The program record beam score of 49.800 started as Davis led off with a gorgeous beam performance for a 9.925. In the No. 2 spot, Wells added a 9.875 on a stuck dismount. In the No. 3 spot, Bowers showed off a floaty series and beautiful lines for a season high 9.95. Torrez tied her career high with a stunning performance for a near-perfect 9.975. In the No. 5 spot, LeVasseur's flexibility was on display for a season-high 9.95 as she set up Smith for the perfect 10.0 in the anchor spot.

TOP 10 TAKEDOWN

NO. 1 OU VS. NO. 7 MICHIGAN
198.650-197.325

In front of 8,875 fans – the third-largest home crowd in program history – the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team won a top-10 battle with No. 7 Michigan, 198.650-197.325.

The Sooners tied their program record score on beam with a 49.800 for the second straight week as senior Ragan Smith earned her third straight perfect 10. Smith became the solo program record holder on the event and was the first Sooner to post back-to-back-to-back perfect scores on any event. Smith's perfect 10 gave her the event title on beam as the Sooners registered at least a share of every event title.

Senior Katherine LeVasseur won vault and bars with matching 9.975s and the all-around with a career-high 39.775. Audrey Davis shared the bars title with LeVasseur with a matching score of 9.975. Junior Jordan Bowers took home the floor title with a 9.95. Every OU all-around competitor recorded at least a 39.650 on the night with Faith Torrez notching a 39.700 and Bowers posting a 39.675. Audrey Davis recorded a career-high-tying 39.650.

For the second week in a row, the Sooners tied the school record with a 49.800 on beam. Davis led off with a career-high 9.975, sticking her dismount and displaying her stunning choreography. Bowers added a 9.950 in the No. 3 spot with a stuck dismount and a strong series. Torrez tied her career high with a 9.975 after a gorgeous routine and stuck gainer full dismount. In the No. 5 spot, LeVasseur added a 9.9 showing off her floaty series and strong leaps.

TWICE AS NICE

NO. 1 OU AT TWU QUAD
1ST/3 (198.300)

Audrey Davis earned the first perfect 10 of her career and senior Ragan Smith earned her fourth-straight 10.0 on beam as the Sooners earned a 198.300 to defeat Clemson (196.350), Texas Woman's (196.275) and Penn (194.825).

OU swept the event titles with Davis and Smith taking home bars and beam, respectively. Jordan Bowers and Faith Torrez shared the title on floor with matching 9.95s, and Torrez took home the vault title with a 9.950. Bowers won the all-around title with a 39.725.

Davis finally picked up a 10.0 from both judges as she earned her first career perfect score. Davis became the second Sooner in 2024 to earn a 10.0 on bars (Jordan Bowers) and the 10th athlete in OU history on the event. Smith, who had become the solo program record holder for most 10.0s on beam just one meet prior, earned her fourth-straight perfect score on the event.

INSTANT PERFECTION

NO. 1 OU AT NO. 12 ARKANSAS
198.350-197.275

Sophomore Ava Siegfeldt earned her first career perfect 10 and Jordan Bowers recorded her fifth career perfect score as the Sooners defeated No. 12 Arkansas on March 10. The win extended the Sooners streak to seven-consecutive scores of 198-plus, the first school in NCAA history to achieve the feat.

Siegfeldt earned her first career perfect 10 in the No. 2 spot on beam, becoming the second Sooner in 2024 to earn a 10.0 on the apparatus (Ragan Smith). Siegfeldt's 10 was the fifth-straight perfect mark on beam by a Sooner after Smith tallied four-straight leading up to the meet. Bowers earned her second perfect score of the year and first on floor this season in the third rotation.

The Sooners won a share of every event title on the night. Bowers took home the all-around title with a 39.725 and floor with her perfect score. Siegfeldt took home the beam title, the first of her career. Audrey Davis won the uneven bars title with a near-perfect 9.975 and Hannah Scheible won vault with a 9.925.

STOLE THE SHOW

NO. 1 OU VS. NO. 7 ALABAMA
198.775-198.025

Celebrating the 2024 senior class, the Sooners sent their seniors out in style, breaking the program team score record once again with a 198.775 against No. 7 Alabama. The win also marked the 500th victory at Oklahoma for 18th-year head coach K.J. Kindler. Along with their overall scoring record, the Sooners tied the program record on floor with a 49.825, punctuated by a perfect 10 from Jordan Bowers.

Bowers had a career night earning a 39.850 in the all-around, becoming the sixth gymnast in 2024 to achieve a mark of 39.850 or higher. Bowers's perfect score was her third of the year and third career perfect mark on floor. The Lincoln, Neb., native took home at least a share of four event titles on the night, earning the vault title with a 9.925, bars with a 9.975, floor with her perfect 10 and the all-around. Sharing the bars title with Bowers was Ragan Smith and Katherine LeVasseur. On beam, Faith Torrez took home the title with a near-perfect 9.975.

The Sooners trailed after the first rotation but used a 49.800 on bars to take the lead. LeVasseur notched a career-high 9.975, followed by another career-high 9.975 from Smith. On beam, the career-highs kept coming as the Sooners posted a 49.700 as a team. Torrez was nearly perfect with a 9.975, while Bowers added a 9.95. The program record on floor was highlighted by a career high 9.975 from Torrez and Smith and Bowers perfect mark.

UNFORGETTABLE

BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP
1ST/4 (198.950)

You break it, you own it. The Sooners claimed their third-straight and 15th overall Big 12 title with a record-breaking performance, setting an NCAA team scoring record with a 198.950.

Oklahoma topped Denver (197.975), BYU (197.050), Iowa State (196.350) and West Virginia (195.125) in their final Big 12 Championship before departing for the SEC for the 2025 season. For the first time in conference history, every event was won with a perfect 10 as the Sooners completed a team gym slam. Junior Jordan Bowers claimed the vault title with her first perfect 10 of the year on the event, the uneven bars title with her second of the year on the event and floor with her third-straight perfect 10 on the event. Ragan Smith earned the beam title for the second year in a row with a perfect 10, her fifth of the season and 10th of her career. Faith Torrez shared the floor title with Bowers, earning her first career perfect mark.

Bowers also claimed the all-around with a 39.925, the highest individual all-around score by a Big 12 athlete at a conference championship. Bowers, who is the first OU gymnast to earn three perfect 10s in one meet, tied Maggie Nichols program all-around record and is only the second OU gymnast to ever earn a 39.900-plus in the all-around.

Following the conclusion of the meet, Big 12 Yearly Awards were announced. Bowers was named the Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, the first Sooner to achieve the honor since Anastasia Webb in 2021. Bowers is the 13th Sooner to be named Gymnast of the Year and the sixth to earn both Newcomer of the Year and Gymnast of the Year honors in her career, joining Anastasia Webb, Nichols, Brenna Dowell, Chayse Capps and Haley Scaman. Kindler was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year for the 13th time as the head coach of Oklahoma and the 15th time overall.

THANK YOU, NEXT

NCAA REGIONAL SECOND ROUND
1ST/4 (198.050)

Posting an NCAA record 11th score of 198-plus, OU advanced to the NCAA Ann Arbor Regional Final with a 198.050 victory over Ohio State (196.975), Illinois (196.750) and NC State (195.950).

Regional champions were announced at the conclusion of the meet. Jordan Bowers won three titles, taking home bars with a 9.975, floor with a 9.95 and the all-around with a 39.675. Katherine LeVasseur earned a share of the vault title with a 9.95 and Ragan Smith won the beam title with her second-straight perfect 10. Bowers was also named the South Central Region Gymnast of the Year.

Associate head coaches Lou Ball and Tom Haley, along with assistant coach Ashley Kerr, were named the South Central Region Assistant Coaches of the Year. The coaching trio led Oklahoma to a No. 1 national ranking for the entire regular season, including No. 1 rankings on vault, bars and beam. The trio aided Oklahoma to a 29-0 record in the regular season and guided OU to 12 scores of 198 or higher, including 11 in a row and an NCAA record 198.500 at the Big 12 Championship on March 23.

FORT WORTH BOUND

ANN ARBOR REGIONAL FINAL
1ST/4 (198.400)

With a 198.400 in the Ann Arbor Regional Final, the Sooners won their 14th-straight NCAA Regional title to advance to their 20th straight and 23rd overall NCAA Championship. Jordan Bowers led the field in the all-around with a 39.725. The junior also took home the tile on floor with a near-perfect 9.975. Hannah Scheible earned a 9.925 on vault for the high score of the night and Audrey Davis took home the bars title with a 9.95. Ragan Smith and Katherine LeVasseur shared beam with matching near perfect scores of 9.975.

Starting on beam, the Sooners earned a 49.800 – tying their program high and setting a record for highest team beam score in regional competition in program history. The Sooners counted only scores of 9.95 or higher in the rotation, highlighted by near-perfection from Levasseur and Smith. OU added two more marks of 49.600 or higher with a 49.675 on floor, thanks to Bowers 9.975, and a 49.600 on bars, including Davis' 9.95.

TOP OF THE PODIUM

NCAA INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONS
AUDREY DAVIS & FAITH TORREZ

Audrey Davis and Faith Torrez etched their names into the record books, capping off the second semifinal with a combined three national titles. Davis was crowned the NCAA Uneven Bars Champion with a 9.9625 and the NCAA Balance Beam Champion with another 9.9625. Davis became the eighth Sooner to win an individual NCAA title and the first on bars since Maggie Nichols in 2018.

Torrez shared the top of the balance beam podium with Davis, becoming the ninth Sooner to win an individual title and joining Davis as the first OU gymnasts to earn a beam title since Taylor Spears in 2014. The nine individual champions in program history have now combined for a total of 21 individual championships. Three individual championships in one season is the most since Anastasia Webb won a trio of titles in 2021.

A HISTORIC SEASON

NCAA SEMIFINALS
3RD/4 (196.6625)

A historic season came to a heartbreaking end in the NCAA Semifinals as the Sooners fell short of advancing to the finals. After an uncharacteristic vault rotation, OU fought back with strong bars and floor rotations, but couldn't overcome the early deficit.

"It wasn't as we scripted it but we take great pride in winning and we're going to take great pride in losing," head coach K.J. Kindler said. "They fought back hard and it was emotional and I give them all the credit for gutting it out through the end."

Despite the early exit, the Sooners went to record-breaking heights in 2024, including setting the NCAA scoring record with a 198.950 at the Big 12 Championships, en route to a third-straight and 15th-overall Big 12 crown. The 20-year-old record was shattered as three Sooners combined for five perfect scores – just the second time in NCAA history a team earned a perfect score on every event in the same meet.

Oklahoma held a No. 1 national ranking for the entire regular season, including No. 1 rankings on vault, bars and beam and a No. 2 ranking on floor. Oklahoma was 29-0 in the regular season, concluding the year at 36-2 after a 20th-straight appearance at the NCAA Championships. Along with claiming the Big 12 Championship, the Sooners also claimed their 14-straight regional crown under Kindler.

Oklahoma earned 12 scores of 198 or higher in 2024, including 11 in a row, to record an NCAA record NQS mark of 198.500. The 12 scores of 198-plus are the most in a single season by any NCAA program. The Sooners recorded four scores over 198.600 on the season and now hold five of the top 10 team scores in NCAA history.

OKLAHOMA GYMNASTICS

THE ROAD TO NATIONALS

The 2025 Oklahoma women's gymnastics team is set to take on one of the most competitive and exciting schedules in the nation as they debut in the SEC. The Sooners will compete against eight of the top 10 teams in the preseason coaches poll, including six conference opponents.

"We have always intentionally sought out the best competition," head coach K.J. Kindler said. "We've increased our strength of schedule since 2006 with the growth of the team in mind. It has always been our motto to never underestimate any opportunity or any opponent, so we absolutely expect every meet to be a challenge, no matter what."

Oklahoma's season kicks off on January 4 at the American Gold Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Classic in Nashville, Tenn., where they will face No. 17 Auburn, No. 23 Nebraska, and No. 27 BYU in their first podium meet of the year.

One of the season's marquee events will take place on January 11 at the Sprouts Farmer's Market Collegiate Quad, hosted at the Paycom Center in Oklahoma City. The Sooners will square off against No. 2 LSU, No. 4 California, and No. 5 Utah in a star-studded competition featuring the defending national champions (LSU), 2024 NCAA runner-up (Cal), and fourth-place finisher (Utah). The meet, set for 3 p.m. CT, will air live on ABC.

"I'm thrilled that ESPN is taking on gymnastics as one of their premier women's events and equally thrilled that it's in Oklahoma City," Kindler said. "There is a movement right now and its clear audiences are leaning into women's athletics. The number of eyes on our sport has never been greater. They're giving our city an opportunity to show their support, not only for OU gymnastics, but for the sport overall. For ESPN to take the step and make this commitment is huge."

On February 23, Oklahoma will return to the Metroplex Challenge in Fort Worth, Texas, where they'll defend their title in a dual meet against North Carolina. This will mark the Sooners' third podium meet of the season, held at the Fort Worth Convention Center.

"This year's schedule highlights powerhouse matchups throughout," Kindler said. "There is no break in the action. In addition to our challenging SEC schedule, we purposefully inserted as many podium meets as we possibly could because these experiences can't be simulated on a normal floor. Mentally they're different, visually they're different, physically they're different and they're also forgiving on the body. Learning how to handle the timing of a podium early on can be helpful in postseason."

Oklahoma's final podium test before the postseason will come at the SEC Championships on March 22, where the Sooners will vie for their first conference title in their new league.

HOME SWEET HOME

The 2025 home schedule is packed with excitement, featuring five meets against teams ranked in the preseason top 15. This year's slate also marks Oklahoma's introduction to the SEC at Lloyd Noble Center, with four conference opponents making the trip to Norman.

"The number one reason to attend women's gymnastics is to have an impact on the outcome of the competition," Kindler said. "I think fans often underestimate their effect on our student athletes. You want to support your team at the highest level, and the best way to do it is to sit in a seat at the Lloyd Noble Center."

The action begins on January 17 with a renewed rivalry as former Big 12 foe Missouri visits for the first time since 2011. The Sooners and Tigers haven't met in the regular season since Missouri joined the SEC in 2012.

"Our first SEC regular season competition is at home, which is exciting," Kindler said. "It's against Missouri, whose program has risen to new heights under Shannon."
Sooner Nation will enjoy back-to-back home meets starting with Arkansas on January 31, followed by Kentucky on February 7.

"We've made it a priority to make our meets fan friendly and exciting for families," Kindler continued. "It's truly a show versus being a sporting event. The objective is for our fans to be completely immersed in the environment for all 90 minutes that they're there."

The energy will hit a peak on February 21 when No. 3 Florida makes its return to the LNC, facing the Sooners for the first time in Norman since 2023.

The home schedule wraps up in early March with a visit from Michigan, marking the Wolverines' second-straight season competing at Lloyd Noble Center.

HELLO SEC

A new year marks the beginning of a new chapter for the Sooners as they join the nation's premier gymnastics conference: the Southeastern Conference. With seven teams ranked in the top 10, Oklahoma will face top-tier competition week after week in their new league.

The challenge includes defending national champion LSU, Florida—winner of six regular-season conference titles—and rising programs like Arkansas, Kentucky, and Missouri.

"We are not strangers to these teams, and they are not strangers to us," Kindler said. "We've had an almost 25 percent SEC schedule in the past and we understand the task ahead and are preparing our athletes for the nuances it involves."

"I feel that we have a good knowledge of what we're walking into. Ultimately, the initial transition will be handled one week at a time with a methodical approach. Only a few of the schools have returned to us and I think we're in a really great place right now to show the SEC the growth of our attendance, atmosphere and energy in the LNC."

MOVING FORWARD

The 2024 season marked the end of an era for the Sooners as they bid farewell to one of the largest senior classes in program history. The departures of five-time All-American Ragan Smith and three-time All-American Katherine LeVasseur headline a group that collectively accounted for seven competitive lineup positions—two on bars, beam, and floor, and one on vault.

LeVasseur made her all-around debut in 2024. Known for her consistency and versatility, Kat's powerful vault landings, elegant lines on bars, grace and poise on beam, and dynamic floor routines were instrumental to the team's success. The 2023 Big 12 Event Specialist of the Year, she posted career-highs of 9.975 or higher on every event, including four perfect 10s on vault.

"Kat fought through a lot of things that were tough to overcome," Kindler said. "She was extremely proud, as we all were, of her all-around performance that final year and being able to finally do everything she was capable of. I truly believe that's why she decided to retire because she felt like she could walk away from the sport fulfilled."

Smith's departure leaves a significant void, particularly on balance beam, where she set the program record with 11 perfect 10s. A clutch performer, she delivered the championship-clinching beam routine at the 2022 national championship. Across her career, Smith earned four Big 12 titles, two regional championships, and five All-America honors. Beyond beam, her steady contributions on bars and floor reflected her leadership and unwavering consistency, qualities that will be hard to replace.

Though she won't be in the competitive lineups, Smith will remain a key part of the program as she transitions into a student coaching role for the Sooners.

"The words go-getter couldn't describe her better," Kindler said. "When we walk into the gym, she's moving mats, pulling boards, getting things set. Knowing what she needed, she's now able to do it for them. She's very verbal, very enthusiastic. I haven't seen a single day go by where she wasn't jumping in to help. Her attitude is a perfect example of unwavering passion, regardless of your role."

The Sooners also said goodbye to Bell Johnson, Soraya Hawthorne, Meilin Sullivan, and Sheridan Ramsey. Johnson was a consistent presence in the floor lineup, while Hawthorne brought energy and excellence to floor during her lone season with the program. Sullivan overcame injuries to make her debut on bars and beam as a senior, and Ramsey made a successful return to competition in her final year following injury.

SHE'S BAAAAAACK!

Despite the departure of six seniors from the 2024 roster, the Sooners received a major boost with the announcement that Audrey Davis would return for the 2025 season, utilizing her final year of eligibility. As a member of the last class granted extended eligibility due to COVID-19, Davis made headlines with her decision to compete for one more year.

"Audrey is a faithful and grateful person," Kindler said. "She jumped at the opportunity to return and she felt like it was God's plan for her. She told me that if she were given this opportunity, the only answer was to say yes. I often think of the 2020 class who deserved this choice and were not offered it. In a way, she is honoring their legacy by grabbing the chance to extend her career."

The reigning national champion on bars and beam, Davis was also a finalist for the prestigious AAI Award—often referred to as the Heisman Trophy of gymnastics. A seven-time All-American, her return provides the Sooners with unmatched experience and energy across the board. While bars and beam remain her signature events, Davis delivers flair and vibrancy to her floor routines, setting an infectious tone for each rotation. On vault, her Yurchenko 1.5 adds critical scoring potential and depth to the lineup.

"She is kind, selfless, and an incredible leader for our team," Kindler said. "All those things are what makes her a great person, not a great athlete, and she just happens to be a great athlete too."

LEADING THE WAY

Joining Davis in the 2025 senior class are Jordan Bowers, Danae Fletcher, and Danielle Sievers. All four gymnasts have been integral to the Sooners' success throughout their careers and will play critical leadership roles in their final year at Oklahoma.

"All four are very different," Kindler said. "But all of them are on the same page. And I think that's probably the number one thing that excites me about this group, is that they think the same in terms of what we're here to do, why we want to do it, and how we're going to do it."

Bowers, the 2024 Big 12 Gymnast of the Year and Region Gymnast of the Year, delivered a standout junior season, highlighted by four individual Big 12 titles and a program-record all-around score. Just one perfect 10 on beam shy of completing a "Gym Slam" (a perfect score on all four events), Bowers enters her final season ready to finish her career at the top.

"Jordan last year performed at a level that wasn't comparable to other performers in the nation," Kindler said. "Her consistency and tenacity are unmatched. As a staple in the all-around for us, she has an innate ability to compartmentalize and move forward in hard situations. She always shows an eagerness to improve and is stoic and reliable in her approach to competition. Underneath it all, she has a strong sense of self and a balanced approach. Her leadership will be her mark this season."

Sievers overcame significant challenges during her junior season, competing primarily on bars before making a return to the floor lineup at nationals. A three-event specialist and the 2023 Big 12 Vault Champion, Sievers has the potential to contribute high scores on vault, bars, and beam, setting the stage for a meaningful final season.

"I'm really excited to see Dani healthy again and having this opportunity," Kindler said. "I think last year was very hard on her, sitting out on most events and not feeling like she could contribute in the way she wanted to. Her internal motivation and self-discipline are easy to see in the passion and joy she attacks every single day with. She holds the line in practice and is an example of all-in behavior day in and day out."

Fletcher endured adversity in 2024, suffering an early-season injury that kept her out of competition. Unfortunately, a subsequent setback during the preseason will prevent her from competing in her senior year.

"What Danae has gone through is not easy and the timing is devastating," Kindler said. "She has consciously chosen to be the light and to take on that role. Danae brings the personality every day of the week. She can change a day for you, the way she approaches her challenges and her sense of humor. We are hoping for her resurgence to competition in 2026."

THE NEXT GENERATION

A new year means the introduction of new faces to the Sooner squad. Kindler has added six incredible athletes in Elizabeth Blessey, Addison Fatta, Elle Mueller, Lily Pederson, Kelsey Slade and Hurley Snow.

Blessey joins the Sooners from Louisiana where she competed at the 2023 Women's Development Program Level 10 National Championships as a vault specialist. She was a 2022 Louisiana State All-Around Champion, vault and floor regional champion and the Eastern Nationals vault champion.

"I'm so impressed with Lizzy's work ethic," Kindler said. "She holds herself to a high standard and doesn't want to be held back. She has really grown and excelled on vault and we're hoping to see her on that event this season. She's incredibly quick off her hands so that's an asset when it comes to vault. Beam is developing and her confidence is blooming in that area as well."

Fatta brings a wealth of international experience to the gym as a former elite and two-time national team member. A four-time U.S. Championships qualifier, five-time U.S. Classics participant, three-time Winter Cup participant and 2021 Olympic Trials qualifier, Fatta helped the US to a gold medal at the 2024 DTB Pokal Mixed Cup. She was a silver medalist on vault at the 2023 Winter Cup and 2021 American Classic and a gold medalist on vault at the 2022 Szombathely World Challenge Cup.

"Addison will be an impact player this season and has put in the work this fall to flourish," Kindler said. "She wants and asks to do an extra of everything or two or three. She wants to go the extra mile for her team and for herself. She's an inspiring spirit to be around. Her parents were her coaches, and it's the family business. You can see that the gym is where she's meant to be, and she treasures every single moment she's in there."

Mueller comes to the Sooners from Twin City Twisters, the gym of Sooner greats Maggie Nichols, Olivia Trautman and Brie Olsen. Mueller brings elite experience and was a two-time national team member who won team gold at the 2022 City of Jesolo Trophy. She was the 2024 Nastia Liukin Cup all-around, vault and bars champion and added a 2024 Development Program National Championship in the all-around.

“Elle was the Nastia Cup Champion and Development Program National Champion this past year,” Kindler said. “To win two high pressure all-around titles like that in the same year tells you a lot about her competitiveness. She has hard days just like everybody else, but if it’s a day that is a competitive day, maybe it’s a lineup day or a partner day, she lights up and owns that moment. Her work ethic matches her competitiveness and her artistry is breathtaking.”

Pederson brings not one, but two perfect 10s from her club gymnastics days to Oklahoma. The Minnesota native is a two-time national champion on bars and in the all-around and a four-time Development Program National Team Member. A two-time Nastia Liukin Cup qualifier, she boasts a perfect score on both vault and bars.

“Lily is incredibly powerful, energetic and bright,” Kindler said. “She holds herself to an extremely high standard in practice and searches for ways to improve daily as she listens intently to feedback and responds. She wants to be out there on every single event and has incredible potential to be an all-rounder for us. One of her greatest assets is her mental strength which will be on full display as we compete against the best our sport has to offer.”

Slade is a two-time Nastia Liukin Cup qualifier who brings a vault national championship with her to Norman. In 2024, she was the Region 1 all-around, vault, beam and floor champion. She won a trio of titles in 2023 at the Arizona State Championships with first place finishes on vault, beam and in the all-around.

“Kelsey is a very grateful individual who wants to continually get better all the time, who accepts compliments with a thank you every time you give them to her,” Kindler said. “She’s a student of the sport and has immense trust in us as her coaches. She has already grown in so many ways, but most importantly is her optimism and expectation of success in critical moments. She has a smile from the moment she arrives to the moment she leaves each day and a contagious spirit.”

The final member of the freshman class is the lone Oklahoman on the roster this season. Snow trained right here in Norman at Bart Conner Gymnastics Academy where she finished fourth on balance beam at regionals in 2024 and earned a third-place finish on beam at the 2024 Oklahoma State Championships.

“Hurley brings that hometown energy to our team,” Kindler said. “For her to be that Sooner Born, Sooner Bred athlete on our team and provide the perspective of a young girl who grew up watching the Sooners is unique. At 5’8, she’s the tallest gymnast on this team and her amplitude is tremendous. She’s learned a lot already and continues to push herself to new heights as a beam specialist.”

KEY PLAYERS

While the Sooners are losing seven competition routines with the departure of their senior class, they return a wealth of talent including 3 Individual National Champions and one of the nation’s top all-arounders. Jordan Bowers, Audrey Davis, Faith Torrez, and Keira Wells competed in every meet during the 2024 season, while Ava Siegfeldt made impactful contributions on vault and beam late in the year.

Jordan Bowers had an exceptional junior season, competing in the all-around at every meet. She recorded season highs of 10.0 on vault, bars, and floor, a 9.95 on beam, and an all-around total of 39.925. Bowers became the first gymnast in OU history to achieve three perfect 10s in a single meet and to earn three consecutive perfect 10s on floor. With 37 event titles in 2024, she was named a Honda Sport Award Finalist. A first-team All-American on bars and floor, Bowers also earned podium finishes at nationals, placing second on floor and third on bars.

Audrey Davis further cemented her reputation as the nation’s top bar worker by claiming the 2024 individual national championship on the event. Scoring below 9.9 only once all season, Davis earned her first career perfect 10 on bars and achieved a 100% hit rate while competing in the all-around in 11 of 16 meets. She also captured the national title on balance beam, becoming just the fourth gymnast in program history to win multiple national titles in the same year.

Faith Torrez had a breakout season, claiming her first individual national title on balance beam and earning a runner-up finish on floor at the NCAA Championships. She scored her first perfect 10 on floor en route to securing the Big 12 title for the second consecutive year. Competing in the all-around in all 16 meets, Torrez achieved a career-high 39.775 and was a two-time NCAA All-American in 2024.

Keira Wells was a cornerstone of the vault lineup, earning a career-high 9.925 on the event and receiving All-America honors—the only Sooner to do so on vault in 2024. Additionally, she made nine appearances on beam, achieving a career-best 9.95 on the event.

Ava Siegfeldt made a stunning return from injury late in the season. In her first beam routine in over a year, she scored a perfect 10, and in the same meet, she debuted her Yurchenko 1.5 vault, earning a 9.9.

THE COMPLETE PACKAGE

Over the past decade, Oklahoma gymnastics has not often relied on a large group of all-around competitors. However, the 2024 season marked a shift, with four athletes regularly competing in the all-around. With three of those four returning, combined with returners looking to break into lineups and a talented freshman class, the Sooners could see anywhere from two to five gymnasts competing in the all-around throughout the season.

Jordan Bowers, Faith Torrez, and Audrey Davis return as experienced all-arounders, while Dani Sievers, Addison Fatta, Elle Mueller, and Lily Pederson are also in position to contend for those roles.

“I think our depth in the all-around department has actually increased since last year,” Kindler said. Jordan and Faith will be two of the best the country has to offer. We expect Audrey to be a four-event contributor as well. Addison has the opportunity; Elle is going to have the opportunity, and Lily will have the opportunity. All three of them are right on the cusp. If they’re not in a lineup, they’re on the edge of that lineup, so at any given time they could be thrown into the mix for the all-around, no doubt about that.”

Torrez delivered a standout sophomore season, claiming her first individual national title and finishing as runner-up at the NCAA Championships. Competing in the all-around at every meet, she posted a career-high 39.775

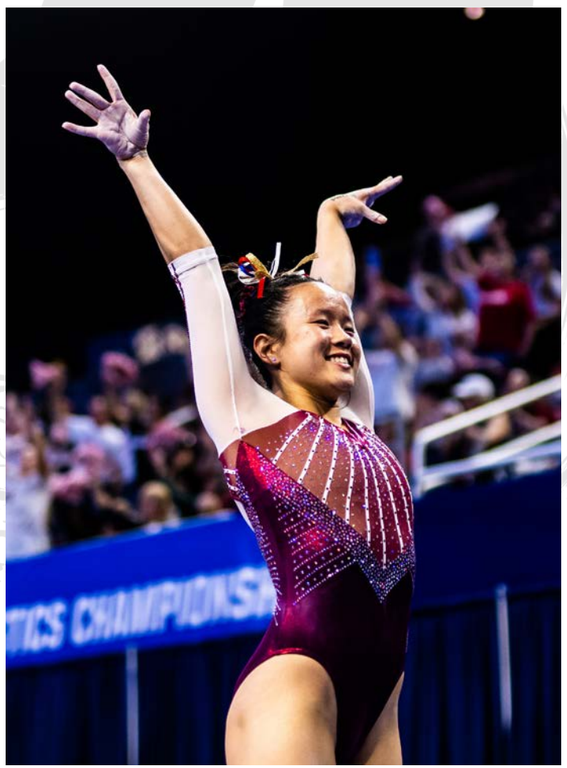
“Faith definitely had a breakout year last year,” Kindler said. “She is going to be a top contender in the NCAA this season from the jump and will make her mark early on. Last season she won the national championship on beam and came in second on floor. That’s a huge accomplishment for a sophomore, and I’ve only seen her get better and better. On bars especially, she’s much more comfortable, much more confident, and her amplitude rocks on that event. Her scores will undoubtedly reflect that growth.”

Sievers, limited to one event in her junior season, has been a consistent three-event competitor throughout her career. Heading into her final year, she will focus on improving consistency on balance beam to secure a spot in the lineup.

“The one thing I never doubt is Dani’s mind,” Kindler said. “She’s very strong-minded, and she’s very much a competitor, and so that makes her a huge candidate for balance beam.”

VAULT TO THE TOP

The No. 1 vault team in the nation at the conclusion of the 2024 regular season, the Sooners face the challenge of replacing one of the country’s best vaulters in Katherine LeVasseur. However, they return considerable depth, with a roster stacked with athletes capable of delivering power and amplitude on the event.



Jordan Bowers, Danielle Sievers, Audrey Davis, Keira Wells, and Faith Torrez return as veteran vaulters from 2024. Bowers recorded a perfect 10 last season, while Wells earned All-America honors at the NCAA Championships. Sievers, who boasts a career-high 9.975, will add a steady presence to the lineup after her absence in 2024.

"We had a lot of changes in the vault lineup last year and nationals provided a transformative experience for us which has assisted in our growth as a team," Kindler said. "There have been other moments like this in the history of our program on other events and the team has always answered with a fierce bounce back mentality. We expect the same response here."

Newcomers Elle Mueller, Lily Pederson, and Addison Fatta are also strong contenders for the vault lineup, as all three compete a Yurchenko 1.5. Additionally, Ava Siegfeldt, who debuted on vault late in the 2024 season, is expected to make an impact as she works her way back from a foot injury.

"Ava's 1.5 is probably bigger and further than anyone else's," Kindler said. "Her challenge is control, and she doesn't have the same numbers as everyone else, but you should watch for her in February. I think once she has a little bit better awareness and consistency, she will contend for that position in the lineup."

Freshman Lizzy Blessey is working on a front pike half, which will add a unique dynamic to the Sooners' vault lineup as the only front-entry vault, especially with Hannah Scheible sidelined this season due to injury.

"If Lizzy competes in the manner in which she practices, you can expect to see anywhere from a 9.85 to a 10 from her," Kindler said. "It's a different vault, which we love, but it's still a 10, so it's exciting."

"We take risks by doing the highest rated vaults which we believe will result in a higher scoring potential due to less body position deductions by the virtual nature of the landing of the vault. The additional half-tenth earned in start value alone can make a big difference out of the gate."

SOARING TO NEW HEIGHTS

Despite the departure of two key routines from the 2024 lineup in Katherine LeVasseur and Ragan Smith, the Sooners are once again positioned to be one of the top bar teams in the nation in 2025. The lineup boasts three returning All-Americans, including reigning national champion Audrey Davis.

A standout addition for the 2025 season will be Addison Fatta's routine on the uneven bars. Featuring a Church release—a Ray performed in a pike position—Fatta will bring a unique and exciting element to the Sooner lineup.

"Addison has probably the most difficult bar routine out of our whole lineup," Kindler said. "We've never had anyone perform this in a competition before. It's directly connected to her Pak, and she's extremely consistent at it. She's a natural bar swinger and is putting the final touches on her stick, because that's definitely an area you have to be able to nail, but she is in a position to cover where Ragan left off."

Replacing All-American Katherine LeVasseur will be no easy task, but the Sooners have options in Caitlin Smith, Elle Mueller, Kelsey Slade, and Lily Pederson to step into that spot.

"All four have great routines, are beautiful swingers, and have exceptional form," Kindler said. "We could go any direction with that. Lily has earned two national bar titles and a perfect 10 before which speaks not only to her execution, but also to her competitiveness."

Audrey Davis, the reigning national champion on bars, will once again lead the squad with her sky-high piked Jaeger, smooth Pak Salto transition, and unique eagle-grip-to-double-front-half dismount. Her impeccable handstands and poise routinely earn some of the highest scores in NCAA competition.

Jordan Bowers, who notched multiple perfect 10s on the event in 2024, will return with her stunning piked Jaeger and precise full-out dismount. Known for her ability to stick her landings, Bowers will bring firepower to the back half of the lineup.

Faith Torrez, whose confidence and consistency saw major strides in 2024, will once again be a key contributor with her dynamic Ray release and powerful double-layout dismount.
Danielle Sievers will maintain her 2024 routine composition, providing a reliable lead-off performance with a Maloney release and full-out dismount.

"Dani is in that position because her mind is invaluable," Kindler said. "It's not all about the stick. For me, it's about her mind, and when you have that trustworthy athlete up there, they can make it happen."

Most athletes will keep their 2024 routine compositions intact, but Ava Siegfeldt will add a new full-out dismount this season, enhancing her scoring potential and depth in the lineup.

A BALANCING ACT

Beautiful choreography, excellent composition, and a coveted pre-routine pep talk from Kindler all contribute to Oklahoma's consistent dominance on beam. In 2025, the Sooners face the challenge of replacing one of the best beam workers in program history in Ragan Smith, along with the poise and grace of Katherine LeVasseur.

However, with returning national champions Audrey Davis and Faith Torrez, alongside Jordan Bowers and Keira Wells, the Sooners have the confidence to remain at the top.

Davis anchored the lead-off spot in 2024, clinching a national title from the premier position. While her role isn't set in stone for the entire season, Kindler plans to utilize Davis' consistency and poise early on.

"I do think at the beginning of the year, it's going to be Audrey's spot as we start off the season," Kindler said. "These first two meets are on podium and they're incredibly high-level meets. Her experience will be invaluable in those situations. I could see us going in a different direction as the season progresses, because I do think we have a lot of consistent athletes that could embrace that position as well."

Torrez, the Sooners' other national champion, thrived in the back half of the lineup, showcasing a dynamic side-aerial-to-layout-stepout series and finishing with a gainer full dismount.

"Faith is a go-getter and so aggressive on this event," Kindler said. "She is extremely confident, and to have her and Davis lead this event is absolutely huge. If you stand back and consider the consistency, we have four athletes who only missed one routine total last season, and that is a mental advantage"

Bowers has been a steady force on beam the last two seasons, hitting a perfect 100 percent of her routines. Known for her intensity and charisma, Bowers is set to once again deliver big scores the Sooners can count on. She has added a swing-down to her routine for her final season.

Wells, another key returner, has the potential to solidify her spot in the beam lineup after being incredibly dependent last season, while Ava Siegfeldt—who earned her first career perfect 10 last season—will look to build on her success.

“Keira had eight routines last year under her belt and is probably one of the most consistent athletes in the gym when it comes to training,” Kindler said. “She showed that very same thing when she competed last year. She was 100 percent every time we put her out there, so I expect her to be an essential mid-lineup gymnast who can keep things on track and move us toward that championship-caliber beam performance.”

“The thing I love about Ava’s beam is the way she attacks and performs. Her dance is very sharp and exact. I just like the way she approaches it, and her dismount is always a sticker. That makes her a huge asset as well.”

With LeVasseur and Smith’s departures, the Sooners are also looking for fresh faces to crack the beam lineup. Elle Mueller, Addison Fatta, Lily Pederson, Kelsey Slade, and Aspen Lenczner are all pushing to claim spots. Additionally, Kindler sees Danielle Sievers, Caitlin Smith and Hurley Snow as potential contributors.

“Caitlin has made great progress on beam after her injury,” Kindler said. “We are trying to push toward a more difficult series, which would really allow her to have a lot of flexibility with what’s in her routine.”

With depth and fierce competition in training, the beam lineup will be the most fluid of the Sooners’ events in 2025, giving Kindler and her staff a wealth of options to fine-tune throughout the season.

DANCING THROUGH LIFE

Floor exercise combines athleticism, artistry, and an undeniable ability to command attention, making it one of the most captivating events in collegiate gymnastics. For Oklahoma, every detail—from choreography to tumbling to music—has been meticulously crafted to bring each routine to life.

Despite losing amazing contributors from 2024, the Sooners are poised to rebuild with returning stars and exciting new additions ready to crack the lineup.

Leading the way are All-Americans Jordan Bowers and Faith Torrez, along with Dani Sievers, who returns after missing most of the 2024 season, and Audrey Davis, who solidified her spot as the leadoff performer. All four bring championship experience, with Bowers (2022, 2023, 2024), Sievers (2022), and Torrez (2023, 2024) each claiming Big 12 titles on floor. Bowers and Torrez have also earned perfect 10s on the event during their careers.

Bowers’ routines are known for their intensive emotion and fierce choreography, drawing in audiences with every move. Her sky-high double-pike tumbling pass consistently leaves an impression, and she will once again be part of the one-two punch at the end of the line-up in her senior season. In 2024, Bowers earned three consecutive perfect 10s, culminating in her third-straight Big 12 title on the event.

Torrez, the NCAA floor runner-up, provides a wow moment for the Sooners with her sky-high double layout and front tuck through to double back. Her leaps and execution are impeccable and the crowd-pleasing subtlety of her dance, with every detail tied in a bow, can draw anyone into her world. She earned her first perfect 10 at the Big 12 Championships and is slated to anchor the lineup.

After returning to the floor lineup in the final meet of 2024, Sievers will add energy and stability to the squad this season.

“You’re definitely going to see Dani jumping back into the lineup again,” Kindler said. “We only had the opportunity to see her out there in the very last competition of the year, so we’re excited for the stability she adds. You’re looking at veterans—Jordan, Faith, Audrey, and Dani—all leading the way.”

A fresh face to watch in the back half of the lineup is Lily Pederson, who will showcase an impressive combination pass: a one-and-a-half step-out through to a two-and-a-half, totaling four twists within the pass.

“Lily’s definitely going to be pushed near the end of the lineup,” Kindler said. “She’s spunky, she’s a great tumbler, a great leaper. She’s going to be a huge asset. Her tumbling is difficult and is extremely unique. Her dance is all energy and her expression pure joy.”

Other athletes stepping up include Addison Fatta, Elle Mueller, Keira Wells, and Kelsey Slade to break into the lineup.

“I love all the floor routines and how they capture each athlete’s style,” Kindler said. “We have a diverse variety of music, and fans will be naturally drawn toward routines like Dani, Audrey, Faith, Keira and Kelsey. They’re high-energy, upbeat. At the same time, they will find themselves mesmerized by Elle, Addison and Jordan. It’s a great mix.”

OKLAHOMA GYMNASTICS

KJ KINDLER

HEAD COACH - NINETEENTH SEASON

511-50-2 RECORD AT OU | 605-103-3 CAREER RECORD

COACHED OU TO SIX NATIONAL TITLES ('14,'16,'17, '19, '22, '23)

ONLY COACH TO LEAD TWO PROGRAMS TO THE SUPER SIX

FOUR-TIME NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

16-TIME BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR

COACHED 189 ALL-AMERICANS

It has been 19 years since Oklahoma Athletic Director Joe Castiglione brought head coach K.J. Kindler to Norman to lead the Oklahoma women's gymnastics program. In the last two decades, Kindler has seen her transformative vision for the Sooner program become a reality.

A four-time National Coach of the Year, Kindler led her program exactly where many said it could never go. OU's head coach has taken the Sooners to the absolute height of the NCAA gymnastics world with NCAA Championships in 2014, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022 and 2023, 12 top-three national finishes, 14 straight regional titles, 189 All-America honors and 14 Big 12 titles.

The 2024 National and Big 12 Coach of the Year, Kindler led the Sooners to record-breaking heights as her squad set the NCAA scoring record with a 198.950 at the Big 12 Championships. The 20-year-old record was shattered as three Sooners combined for five perfect scores – just the second time in NCAA history a team earned a perfect score on every event in the same meet.

Kindler led her team to a Big 12 Championship and NCAA Ann Arbor Regional title before a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Championship.

Audrey Davis and Faith Torrez each brought home individual titles, with the duo sharing beam and Davis earning the bars crown after ending the year as the No. 1 ranked athlete on the event. At the Big 12 Championship, a Sooner brought home every individual title as Torrez, Jordan Bowers and Ragan Smith combined for five perfect 10s. Bowers was named the Big 12 Gymnast of the Year before securing a Central Region Gymnast of the Year nod and a spot as a Honda Sport Award Finalist.

The 2024 squad also set program records on bars (49.825), beam (49.800) and floor (49.825), while securing an NCAA record NQS score of 198.500.

The 2023 Big 12 Coach of the Year, Kindler once again led her team to the triple crown of gymnastics with an NCAA Championship, NCAA Norman Regional title and Big 12 Championship. For the second time in school history, the Sooners won back-to-back national titles, also achieving the feat under Kindler in 2016-2017.

Eight Sooners combined for 10 All-America honors and Olivia Trautman capped off her illustrious Sooner career as the seventh gymnast in program history to win an NCAA individual title and fourth on vault. At the 2023 Big 12 Championship, six Sooners claimed a total of eight individual crowns as OU won every event and the all-around. Katherine LeVasseur was named the Big 12 Event Specialist of the Year and Faith Torrez was crowned the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year. As a team, the Sooners set the highest team score in Big 12 Championship history with a 198.400.

Under Kindler, the Sooners broke two incredible records, setting the program best on beam with a 49.800 at the 2023 Big 12 Championship and their best score in program history with a 198.575 against West Virginia.

Not only did the Sooners excel on the competition floor in 2023, but academically as well. Meilin Sullivan became the second Sooner to win the NCAA Elite 90 Award, following in the footsteps of two-time winner Emma LaPinta. Katherine LeVasseur was named the Big 12 Winter Scholar Athlete of the Year and a College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Selection. Danielle Sievers and Olivia Trautman were named College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans – the first time that multiple OU gymnasts received the honor.

The 2022 Big 12 Coach of the Year, Kindler led her team to the triple crown with a Big 12 Championship, the Norman Regional title and the NCAA Championship. The 2022 squad went 31-2 on the season, posting an undefeated record at home with their only losses in top-five matchups. The Sooners had a comeback for the ages at the NCAA Championship, climbing from fourth place after the first rotation to claim the crown with an incredible beam routine from Ragan Smith.

Nine Sooners combined for 14 All-America honors at the NCAA Championship with two top-three finishes in Jordan Bowers earning second on floor and Allie Stern coming in third on vault. Bowers was crowned the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and Carly Woodard was named the Big 12 Event Specialist of the Year.

With Kindler named the Big 12 Coach of the Year, the Sooners finished the 2021 season as the National Runner-Up, their fourth top-two finish in the last six years. Kindler led her squad to a 30-2 season, with the only losses coming at the Big 12 Championship and the NCAA Finals. The Sooners won their 11th-straight regional title, knocking off host Alabama who lost a regional at home for the first time in program history.

Anastasia Webb had a season to remember as she became the first OU gymnast to earn CWSA Top Three Honors after being named the 2021 Honda Sport Award Winner. Webb joined an elite group of collegiate gymnasts, becoming the ninth to ever win three titles in one championship as she was crowned the all-around, vault and floor champion.

Six Sooners combined for a nation-best 15 All-America honors, including Webb's five first-team accolades. Webb was the only gymnast in the country to earn first-team nods on every event and the all-around. Olivia Trautman also brought home five All-America honors with a first team nod in the all-around and second-team honors on all four events.
Webb was crowned the Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, while Karrie Thomas was named the Big 12 Event Specialist of the Year.

The 2020 season was shortened due to the outbreak of COVID-19. In the time the Sooners had to compete, Kindler's squad was ranked No. 1 for the entire season and posted the nation's top score with a 198.450. The Sooners were undefeated at 16-0 before the season was canceled.

Five Sooners combined for a nation-best 14 All-America honors, including Maggie Nichols' five first-team honors. Nichols and Ragan Smith brought home a pair of Big 12 Conference Awards, being named the Gymnast and Newcomer of the Year, respectively.

The 2019 season was one for the record books as the Sooners finished with a 32-0 record and a fourth national championship. Just the second undefeated season in program history, Kindler's squad held the No.1 ranking all season en route to posting a 198.3375 at the NCAA Championships to end their season with yet another national title.

Eight gymnasts combined for 17 All-America honors including Jade Degouveia, Brenna Dowell, Nicole Lehrmann, Maggie Nichols, Karrie Thomas, Olivia Trautman, Anastasia Webb and Carly Woodard. Dowell and Nichols were national champions once again as Dowell earned the floor title and Nichols defended her all-around crown while also taking home a share of the vault title. Nichols was just the sixth gymnast in NCAA history to earn back-to-back all-around titles and became the OU record older for career individual titles with six.

Dowell, Degouveia and Trautman swept the Big 12 Conference Awards, being named the Gymnast, Event Specialist and Freshman of the Year, respectively. It marked the third-straight year that OU swept the yearly awards and fifth time overall.

The Sooners won their eighth-straight Big 12 title and 10th straight regional title while posting a third consecutive season with an RQS over 198. OU notched eight scores of 198 or better in 2019, including posting the highest away score in NCAA history with a 198.475 at the Athens Regional.

In 2018, the Sooners were the No. 1 team in the nation the entire season, culminating in a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships. The Sooners earned their seventh-straight Big 12 title and ninth straight regional title along the way to setting a program and NCAA record of 10 scores of 198 or better during a season. The Sooners finished the season with three-consecutive scores of 198 or better, a feat they achieved three times throughout the season.

Eight gymnasts combined for 16 All-America honors, including Stefani Catour, Jade Degouveia, Brenna Dowell, AJ Jackson, Nicole Lehrmann, Maggie Nichols, Bre Showers and Anastasia Webb. Dowell and Nichols became individual national champions, with Dowell earning the vault title and Nichols taking home the all-around, bars and floor titles. Additionally, the Sooners added 10 regular season All-America accolades from the NACGC/W. Nichols became a five-time All-American, joining Chayse Capps (2016) and Kelly Garrison (1988) as the only Sooners to accomplish the feat.

In 2017, the Sooners won their second straight and third overall national title with a 198.3875, the highest ever score by any team at the NCAA Championships. OU finished the year with a perfect 33-0 overall record, the first undefeated season in program history.

Five gymnastics combined for 12 All-America honors, including Chayse Capps, Stefani Catour, AJ Jackson, Nicole Lehrmann and Maggie Nichols, while Lehrmann and Nichols became individual national champions on the bars. Additionally, OU paced the nation with 14 regular season All-America accolades from the NACGC/W.

Kindler earned Co-Big 12 Coach of the Year and South Central Region Coach of the Year honors in a season that saw her squad win the conference for a sixth straight season and advance to national meet behind an eighth straight regional win.

In 2016, the Sooners snagged their second national title in program history and first outright win, posting a 197.675 during the Super Six in Fort Worth, Texas.

The meet capped a season in which the Sooners posted a 38-1-0 overall record, with their lone loss coming in their season opener. Nine Sooners earned a program-record 18 All-America honors. Leading the way was junior Capps, who was named a five-time All-American.

The Sooners continued their recent postseason dominance in 2016, securing an unprecedented fifth straight Big 12 title and a seventh consecutive regional crown, doing so at the NCAA Iowa City Regional. In total, seven Sooners earned a combined 10 regular season All-America accolades from the NACGC/W.

Kindler's 2015 Sooners were impressively dominant throughout the season, earning a perfect 14-0 record during the regular season for the nation's only undefeated regular season. The Sooners also spent the entirety of the regular season ranked No. 1 nationally, earning the top spot in the rankings for an impressive 12 straight weeks. OU captured its fourth consecutive Big 12 Championship (a league first), the NCAA Norman Regional title and 11 regular season All-America honors.

Kindler led her Sooners to a strong finish at the NCAA Championships in Fort Worth as the team achieved its fifth Super Six appearance since 2010, taking third place overall. Kindler's OU squad earned a then-program-record and nation-leading 13 All-America honors and every Sooner competing in event finals finished in the top 10 nationally on their individual events.

In recognition of Oklahoma's extraordinary and dominant season, NCAA gymnastics coaches voted Kindler the 2015 National Coach of the Year. Kindler has been named Coach of the Year three times in her career (2005, 2010, 2015), including two times as head coach at Oklahoma.

A visionary with the heart and willpower to accomplish what few thought was possible, Kindler made Oklahoma only the sixth team in NCAA history to win a women's gymnastics championship in the 2014 season. Kindler's 2014 Sooners were Big 12 champions, NCAA Minneapolis Regional Champions and earned nine NCAA All-America awards. She also coached three gymnasts to top-two finishes at the NCAA Championships, including balance beam champion Taylor Spears. Spears became OU's first individual national champion in 26 years and was joined by Maile'ana Kanewa (floor exercise) and Haley Scaman (floor exercise) in earning top-two NCAA finishes.

The 2014 Sooners won their title in record-breaking fashion at the 2014 NCAA Championships, posting a meet-record 198.175 to tie Florida atop the podium. OU earned program-record scores at an NCAA Championship meet on three out of four events.
In 2013, Kindler led OU to the program's third NCAA Super Six team finals appearance. The squad earned seven All-America honors en route to a second-place team effort overall, tying for the highest finish in program history. The performance marked OU's third top-three finish in the last four seasons under Kindler.

Kindler's 2010 team also achieved a second-place finish in OU's first-ever Super Six appearance. With the performance, Kindler became the first head coach in NCAA history to lead two separate programs to the Super Six (Iowa State--2006; Oklahoma--2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017).

The 2013 season marked one of the finest in Oklahoma program history. OU spent the entirety of the season ranked in the top three nationally, including two weeks at No. 1. The primary beam coach, Kindler led the beam squad to a No. 1 ranking for 11 consecutive weeks during the regular season. OU defeated nine top-25 teams, including four top-10 squads, en route to the program's 11th conference title and an NCAA Regional championship.

The Sooners' regular season efforts were recognized with a nation-best 11 NACGC/W All-America awards. Kindler's leadership throughout the team's stellar season earned her Coach of the Year honors from the Big 12 and the South Central Region.

Kindler's OU squad was marked by excellence at both the team and individual levels in 2013. The team posted a 197.375 at the NCAA Championships to finish as the nation's runner-up, tying for the highest finish in Sooner history. OU scored a 197.000 or better at 13 meets in 2013, tying an NCAA record for most such meets in a single season.
In 2012, Kindler led the Sooners to team titles at the Big 12 Championship and the NCAA Champaign Regional. Kinder was named conference coach of the year and OU captured seven All-America awards and a seventh-place finish in the country.

Kindler was named the South Central Regional Head Coach of the Year in 2011 after guiding OU to its third undefeated regular season in four years. A program-best 11 OU gymnasts were named All-Americans as the Sooners went on to win an NCAA Regional title and finish third in the nation.

On Jan. 23, 2011, Kindler collected her 100th win with the OU program as the Sooners defeated TWU, 196.175-193.050. OU is a combined 179-48-2 in seven seasons under Kindler; she has helped the program to its four best win percentages in program history in the last four seasons.

In 2010, the National Coach of the Year, Regional Coach of the Year and Big 12 Coach of the Year led Oklahoma to a national runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships with seven All-Americans, including Big 12 Sportswoman of the Year Hollie Vise. Vise was an All-American on bars, beam and floor and finished as the national runner-up on bars and floor.

Under the direction of Kindler, the Sooners closed 2010 with a final record of 29-3. The win total broke the previous program best of 26 that was set in 1989 under Becky Switzer. Kindler guided the Sooners to the only undefeated regular season in the NCAA in 2010 (22-0) en route to postseason titles at the Big 12 Championship and NCAA University Park Regional. OU was ranked first or second in every regular season poll in 2010, as the Sooners were the only squad in the country to score above a 196.000 in every meet.
Oklahoma also picked up its first win over a No. 1 opponent in program history in 2010 with a 197.950-197.275 victory over top-ranked Alabama on March 5. OU eclipsed its previous program best (197.725) by 0.225 in the win, which was the highest score in the NCAA that season.

Kindler's squad continued its Big 12 dominance, winning its third straight Big 12 title with a team score of 197.175, the highest score by a conference champion since 2001. OU swept all four team event titles and won at least a share of all four individual event titles.
The Sooners won their second-straight Big 12 title in 2009, while posting individual event titles on bars and beam at the conference championship. Megan Ferguson earned All-America status with her stellar performance on beam as the Sooners won eight beam titles in 2009.

In 2008, Kindler guided Kiara Redmond as the senior capped off her illustrious career with four additional All-America honors, moving her career total to nine - the highest tally of any gymnast in program history. The 2008 campaign started with 21 consecutive victories, including all 18 regular season meetings, as OU finished the regular season as the only undefeated team in the country.

Oklahoma produced a conference-leading nine spots on the 2008 regular season All-Big 12 Team. OU recorded only two scores lower than 9.8 in the final three events of the 2008 conference championship as the Sooners clinched at least a share of all four individual event titles - marking just the third time in Big 12 history that a school clinched at least a share of all four apparatus wins.
Named head coach of the Sooners in the summer of 2006, Kindler quickly positioned the OU squad among the nation's elite in her first season in Norman in 2007. That year, the Sooners rattled off a streak of 12 consecutive victories, nine of which came on the road, including an upset of then-No. 6 Nebraska in Lincoln, a feat no OU team had accomplished since 1991.

Oklahoma finished second at the Big 12 Championships before heading to the NCAA Central Regional, taking second place before finishing eighth at the NCAA Championships, the highest finish up to that point in program history.

"We are dedicated to filling our staff with the best and brightest minds in coaching," said OU Athletics Director Joe Castiglione upon Kindler's hiring. "K.J. Kindler brings a reputation of great achievement in all aspects of leading a program." "She impressed us not only with her accomplishment to this point, but with her lofty goals for the future and her plan for reaching those goals. We are thrilled to work with K.J. and her staff as we pursue championships."

Prior to her hiring at OU, Kindler spent six seasons as the head coach at Iowa State. In her final season in Ames in 2006, Kindler led Iowa State to its third trip to the NCAA Championships and its first appearance in the Super Six team finals.

The 24-10 Cyclones produced three All-Americans for a second-consecutive season while posting an undefeated mark at home, a 10-1 dual record and an 8-1 standard in duals against ranked opponents. The team also snapped Nebraska's 60-meet home winning streak.

The 2006 squad won its first Big 12 Championship since 2000, and three Cyclone gymnasts earned either an outright or share of an individual title at the meet.

During six seasons at ISU from 2001-06, Kindler coached nine regional event champions, seven NCAA individual championship qualifiers and 13 Big 12 champions.

Kindler, an Iowa State graduate, joined the Cyclone staff as an assistant coach in 1992.

As an ISU gymnast, Kindler was a three-time MVP for the Cyclones and runner-up in the all-around at the 1992 Big Eight Championships. She was the school's first individual NCAA Regional qualifier and competed three times in the postseason meet.

Kindler hails from Lake Elmo, Minn., and trained under Mary Jane Olsen at Hamline University in St. Paul. In high school, she moved to Connecticut and trained under Frank and Laurie DeFrancesco at Arena Academy in Stamford and Walter Hawkes at Wilton High School. In Connecticut, she won multiple conference and state titles.

The eldest of five siblings, Kindler hails from a gymnastics family. One sister, Lori, competed at the University of Minnesota. She and her husband own and operate Flips Gymnastics in the Twin Cities area. Kindler's nieces, Emma and Lucy Kindler, enjoy recreational gymnastics.

Kindler is married to OU assistant coach Lou Ball. The couple has two daughters, Maggie and Adelade.

Associate head coach Lou Ball enters his 19th season with Oklahoma women's gymnastics in 2025. He serves as the primary coach on vault and co-coach on uneven bars.

The 2010, 2020 and 2024 National Assistant Coach of the Year along with fellow OU associate head coach Tom Haley, Ball has aided OU to 11 top-three finishes at the NCAA Championships (2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2022 and 2023), including Oklahoma's first-ever NCAA championship effort in 2014 and second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth title runs in 2016, 2017, 2019, 2023. The Sooners also notched NCAA runner-up finishes in 2010, 2013, 2018 and 2021 and have finished no lower than third in the NCAA Final since their first appearance in 2010.

Ball has been named Region Assistant Coach of the Year nine times in his career and has helped OU to 14 Big 12 championships and 14 straight NCAA Regional titles. OU has garnered 83 All-America honors on bars and vault under Ball's leadership, including four of the last six individual national vault champions, Olivia Trautman (2023), Anastasia Webb (2021), Maggie Nichols (2019) and Brenna Dowell (2018). He also coached Nichols and Nicole Lehrmann to co-national champions on bars in 2017 and Nichols to another NCAA co-bars title in 2018. In 2024, he led Audrey Davis and Jordan Bowers to a No. 1 ranking on the uneven bars before Davis earned the 2024 NCAA bars championship. Ball also coached Haley Scaman to a prolific vaulting career at Oklahoma, including top-three NCAA individual finishes in 2014 and 2015. Ball's efforts have also resulted in 35 Big 12 individual champions (19 on bars, 16 on vault) and 15 gymnasts to 44 perfect 10s (31 on vault, 13 on bars).

During the 2024 season, Ball's vault and bars squads finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation on each event and earned 27 event titles. He helped four Sooners combine for four All-America honors on both vault (1) and bars (3). Davis won Oklahoma's fourth uneven bars national title and first since 2018. Ball coached a pair of Sooners to a combined four perfect 10s on vault and bars, including three on bars.

For the 2023 season, Ball's vault and bars squads finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation on each event and earned 25 team titles. Ball helped seven Sooners combined for nine All-America honors on both vault (six) and bars (three), while the squads totaled 31 individual event titles on the events, including Trautman who won OU's fourth NCAA vault title. Ball coached three Sooners to a combined five perfect 10's on vault and bars, including four on vault. During the NCAA postseason, Ball helped OU to the second-best NCAA Championships bars score in program history. and posted the best regional score in program history on bars and second-best regional score on vault during the Norman Regional Final. Ball aided five gymnasts to a total of seven top-25 national rankings to finish the regular season, including four on bars and three on vault. Four of those finishes were in the top-10 on those events.

In 2022, Ball was instrumental in leading the Sooners to an NCAA and program-record 49.825 on bars. The Sooners' 49.6625 on vault at the NCAA Championships was a program record at an NCAA event. Under Ball's leadership, seven All-America honors were earned on vault and bars in 2022. The vault and bars squads combined for 28 team event titles and 36 individual event titles. Three Sooners scored perfect 10s on vault in LeVasseur, Allie Stern and Jordan Bowers.

In 2021, Ball was instrumental in leading Webb to the vault national title. Webb (vault, bars), Stern (vault), Trautman (vault, bars) and Audrey Davis (bars) all earned All-America honors under Ball in 2021. The vault and bars squads earned 27 team event titles and 31 individual event titles.

Webb, Trautman and Evy Schoepfer all earned perfect scores on vault in 2021. Davis upgraded her vault from a Yurchenko full to a 1.5 in the middle of the season, earning a career-high 9.950 on her upgraded vault.

In a shortened 2020 season due to COVID-19, Ball led the Sooners to 10 team titles vault and bars. The squad also combined for 25 individual event titles on vault and bars with a pair of gymnasts combining for seven perfect 10s – six on vault and one on bars. Ball helped Nichols and Webb to a No. 1 and No. 2 ranking, respectively, on vault.

Nichols (vault, bars), Stern (vault), Webb (vault) and Jade Degouveia (vault) all earned WCGA All-America honors under Ball in 2020. As a team, the Sooners finished the year ranked No. 1 on vault and bars.

The 2019 Sooners picked up seven All-America accolades on vault and bars, led by the national championship performance from Nichols on vault. Nichols also received honors on bars, while Dowell (vault), Lehrmann (vault, bars), Thomas (bars) and Webb (bars) were recognized.

The team captured a total of 17 vault titles and 16 bar titles under Ball's leadership, including a program-record 49.725 on bars against Florida. The Sooners became the first team since the devaluation of the Yurchenko full to field a lineup of six 10.0 start value vaults, securing a season-best 49.625 with six Yurchenko 1.5s.

Ball helped Nichols to a Big 12 title on bars. Nichols and Lehrman each recorded a perfect 10 on bars, while Nichols and Dowell scored perfect 10s on vault under Ball's leadership.

The 2018 Sooners picked up seven All-America accolades on vault and bars, led by the national championship performances from Dowell and Nichols on vault and bars, respectively. Nichols also received honors on vault, while Degouveia (vault), Lehrmann (bars), Stefani Catour (bars) and Bre Showers (vault) were recognized.

The team captured a total of 14 titles on vault and bars under Ball's leadership, including a program-record 49.725 on bars at the Big 12 Championships. The Sooners counted five scores of 9.900 or better, including four scores of 9.950 or better, highlighted by a 9.975 from Lehrmann to earn the Big 12 Championship. Nichols turned in a 10.0 on the bars at the NCAA Championships, just the seventh gymnast in NCAA history to do so.

The 2017 Sooners picked up six All-America accolades on vault and bars, led by the national-championship performances from Lehrmann and Nichols on the bars. Nichols also received honors on vault, while Catour (bars), Chayse Capps (vault) and AJ Jackson (vault) were recognized.

The team captured a total of 14 titles on vault and 15 on bars under Ball's leadership and exploded for a program-record 49.700 on bars at TWU. The event was highlighted by a pair of perfect 10.0s from Lehrmann and senior McKenzie Wofford, who became the first Sooners to post perfect marks on the same event in the same meet. Nichols also posted a 10.0 on bars in 2017 and turned in two perfect scores on vault in her freshman campaign.

In 2016, Ball coached four All-Americans on both vault and bars as he helped lead the Sooners to their second NCAA title. Earning first-team accolades on vault were Scaman, Keeley Kmieciak, Hunter Price, while Capps snagged second-team honors. Capps was also a first-team honoree on bars along with Wofford and Lehrmann, and Jackson received second-team recognition.

Ball's gymnasts secured 12 team titles on vault and 16 on bars, highlighted by 10 individual bars crowns for Wofford. The Sooners twice set the then-program-best mark on bars (49.675) in 2016, doing so against Arizona and at the Big 12 Championship, fueled by Kmieciak's perfect 10 on the apparatus, just the second in the history of the conference meet. Ball coached three Big 12 Champions (Kmieciak and Jackson on vault, Kmieciak on bars) and two NCAA Iowa City Regional Champions (Capps on vault, Wofford on bars).

Ball's coaching efforts led Oklahoma to strong performances throughout the 2015 season on both vault and uneven bars. OU captured 11 team titles on vault and 13 on bars while totaling 32 individual event titles combined on the two events.

On vault, Ball guided an impressive four Sooners to All-America accolades, including first-team honors for Scaman and Jackson. Scaman posted a 10.0 on vault under Ball's coaching during the regular season and finished third nationally on the event at NCAA event finals. Ball also guided Jackson to the Big 12 and NCAA Norman Regional individual titles on vault.

Several Sooners also shone on uneven bars under Ball's guidance in 2015, including first-team All-Americans Dowell, Kmieciak and Wofford. Wofford had a dominant season, earning eight individual titles while finishing fourth nationally on bars at NCAA event finals. Dowell earned the nation's first 10.0 on bars in January and Kmieciak enjoyed a stellar championship showing on the event as well. Ball also led Rebecca Clark to a share of the Big 12 title on uneven bars.

Ball helped lead Oklahoma to the best season in program history in 2014, coaching the Sooners to a first NCAA title, an NCAA Regional championship and a Big 12 title. Ball also led a resurgence of the Oklahoma vaulting corps in 2014. His Sooners averaged a program-best 49.475 over the course of the season on the event, winning 12 event titles throughout the season. OU notched five of the top six scores all-time for an Oklahoma team, including a program-record 49.700 at the NCAA Minneapolis Regional in April. Two of Ball's gymnasts were named All-Americans on the event (Scaman and Maile'ana Kanewa), and Scaman posted OU's first perfect 10.0 on the event since 2010 in March.

On uneven bars, Ball and Haley coached senior Taylor Spears to first-team All-America honors at NCAAs for her performance. Ball and Haley's gymnasts won 11 total uneven bars titles throughout the season.

In 2013, Ball helped coach OU to a national runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships, tying for what was then the best finish in program history. The Sooners won a Big 12 championship and took top honors at the NCAA Norman Regional en route to their record-setting performance.

Ball's vault squad captured a total of 13 individual event titles on the season. Under Ball's tutelage, freshman Maile'ana Kanewa overcame preseason surgery to earn top honors on vault three times, including the Big 12 vault championship. Ball also coached Madison Mooring to first-team All-America honors and an appearance in the NCAA individual finals on the event.

Ball and Haley teamed up to coach three Sooner gymnasts to All-America honors on bars. Clark and Erica Brewer both earned first-team All-America honors and top-10 NCAA finishes on the event, while Brie Olson was a second-team All-American. Ball and Haley's gymnasts captured 18 titles on bars throughout the season.

In 2012, Ball helped coach OU to a Big 12 championship, regional championship and seventh-place national finish, marking Oklahoma's ninth-straight trip to the NCAAs.

Oklahoma's 2011 squad earned its third undefeated regular season in four years while 11 gymnasts captured All-America honors. Ball again earned coach of the year honors at the regional level as he aided OU to the NCAA Norman Regional title and a third-place performance at the NCAA Championships.

In 2010, OU finished in a program-best second place after making its first-ever NCAA Super Six team finals appearance. The Sooners also went undefeated in the regular season, beat No. 1 Alabama and eight other top-25 opponents, claimed their third-straight Big 12 Championship and won the 2010 NCAA University Park Regional title.

OU won 12 of 13 team event titles on bars under the direction of Haley and Ball, while Hollie Vise earned All-America distinction and was NCAA Runner-Up on the apparatus. The Sooners didn't count a fall on the apparatus in 2010 and posted only two team scores below 49.000.

Ball's vault squad posted a team score of 49.000 or higher in 14 of 15 competitions in 2010. OU won the team vault title 11 times in 2010, including the Big 12 vault title and NCAA University Park Regional vault title.

Under Ball's leadership, an OU gymnast won the individual vault title 11 times, including the Big 12 vault title (shared by Jackie Flanery, Olson and Natalie Ratcliff). Ball also helped Sara Stone achieve the program's first perfect score since 2008 when Stone posted a 10.0 on vault at Michigan State.

In 2009, OU closed the year with top-10 team rankings on both vault and bars and won a combined 14 team titles on the two events. Every member of the 2009 Oklahoma vault lineup posted a season high of at least 9.850, including three with scores higher than 9.900.

Ball's expertise on the two events was evident in 2008 as Oklahoma closed the season ranked first in the Big 12 and 10th in the country on both apparatuses. OU won 11 bars titles and notched 10 wins on vault during the regular season, capped off by 23 individual event titles on the two events alone.

In his first season at OU in 2007, Ball also guided Brittney Koncak-Schumann to All-America status on vault.

Prior to joining the Oklahoma program, Ball spent 11 years as administrative assistant coach at Iowa State where he was named the 2005 NACGCW National Co-Assistant Coach of the Year. He was also honored as an NCAA Regional Assistant Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2002.

At Iowa State, Ball served as the primary coach on vault and uneven bars. During his tenure in Ames, the Cyclones rewrote the school record books on both events and six of his gymnasts won Big 12 titles on bars. Ball also coached a two-time regional bars co-champion and a pair of two-time All-Americans on vault.

While at Iowa State, Ball was a co-owner and head coach at the Cardinal Gymnastics Academy where he qualified five gymnasts to the national TOPS team and camp held annually at USA gymnastics coach Bela Karolyi's ranch Ball and K.J. Kindler have had five of their club gymnasts go on to compete at the NCAA level.

In addition, Ball coached individuals to Level 10 USA Nationals for eight consecutive years, and his Level 8, 9 and 10 teams all captured Iowa state titles. In 1999 and 2001 Ball was named Iowa USA Gymnastics Coach of the Year.

Prior to his time in Iowa, Ball served as head coach at Cahoy's Gymnastics School in Omaha, Nebraska, for three years where he led several individuals to berths at USA Nationals.

As an athlete, Ball competed as a vault and floor exercise specialist at the University of Nebraska from 1990-93. He was an NCAA vault finalist in 1992 and helped the Cornhuskers to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships in 1992 and 1993.

Ball also earned All-Big Eight honors on vault in 1992 and 1993. Ball transferred to Nebraska in 1990 after spending two seasons as a member of the gymnastics team at Michigan.

Ball earned a bachelor's degree in liberal studies from Iowa State in 1999.

He is married to OU head coach K.J. Kindler and the couple lives in Norman with their two daughters, Maggie and Adelade.

Three Sooners were All-Americans on floor, including who Jordan Bowers finished ranked second in the nation on the event. The bars and floor squads combined for 24 event titles and 38 individual titles on the events.

In 2021, Haley helped Anastasia Webb to an individual national title on floor, his third gymnast to earn a floor championship at Oklahoma. Four Sooners combined for six All-America honors on both bars and floor, while the squads combined for 29 individual event titles on the events. As a team, Haley's groups earned 27 team event titles. Webb earned a perfect score on bars at the Tuscaloosa Regional.

In a shortened 2020 season due to COVID-19, Haley helped the Sooners to 10 team titles on bars and floor. The squad also combined for 27 individual event titles on bars and floor, with three gymnasts ranked in the top 10 in the nation. Maggie Nichols finished the year at No. 2, while Jade Degouveia and Ragan Smith were tied at No. 7.

Degouveia (bars), Nichols (bars, floor), Smith (bars) and Webb (floor) all earned WCGA All-America honors under Haley in 2020. Nichols secured a perfect 10 on bars, while Degouveia earned a career-best 9.975 in her first ever season of competition on the event. As a team, the Sooners finished the year ranked No. 1 on bars and No. 3 on floor.

Haley helped lead the Sooners to 16 team titles on bars and 13 on floor in 2019. The squad also combined for 42 individual event titles on bars and floor, including a national champion as Brenna Dowell took home a share of the 2019 floor title.

Dowell (floor), Nichols (bars, floor), Degouveia (floor), Webb (bars, floor), Nicole Lehrmann (bars), Karrie Thomas (bars) and Olivia Trautman (floor) all earned All-America honors under Haley.

OU set program records on bars and floor in 2019, with a 49.725 on bars and a 49.825 on floor against Florida. Lehrmann and Nichols each recorded a perfect 10 on bars during the season, while Trautman earned a perfect 10 on floor.

Haley led his gymnasts to another incredible season in 2018. With 14 event titles on bars and 12 on floor, the squad combined for 36 individual event titles on bars and floor. Dowell (floor), Lehrmann (bars), Nichols (bars, floor), Webb (floor), Stefani Catour (bars) and AJ Jackson (floor) all earned All-America honors under Haley as Nichols went on to become the co-floor national champion.

OU set a program-record 49.725 on bars at the Big 12 Championships. The Sooners counted five scores of 9.900 or better, including four scores of 9.950 or better, highlighted by a 9.975 from Lehrmann to earn the Big 12 Championship. Nichols turned in a 10.0 on the bars at the NCAA Championships, just the seventh gymnast in NCAA history to do so.

Haley's gymnasts enjoyed another standout season in 2017. The squad tallied 15 event titles on floor and 13 on floor. Jackson (floor), Nichols (bars, floor), Stefani Catour (bars) and Nicole Lehrmann (bars) all earned All-America honors under Haley's guidance as Nichols and Lehrmann became co-bars national champions.

OU exploded for a then-program-record 49.700 on bars at TWU. The event was highlighted by a pair of perfect 10.0s from Lehrmann and senior McKenzie Wofford, who became the first Sooners to post perfect marks on the same event in the same meet.

Additionally, Dowell (bars), Nichols (bars), Wofford (bars) and Jackson (floor) all snagged individual Big 12 titles, while Nichols earned the floor title at the NCAA Seattle Regional.

Haley's 2016 Sooners earned 13 team event titles on floor. Four Sooners secured All-America status on the event, including Chayse Capps (first team), Jackson (first team), Keeley Kmieciak (first team) and Haley Scaman (second team). On bars, the Sooners soared to 16 team titles in 2016, twice setting the then-program record on the event with a score of 49.675 against Arizona and at the Big 12 Championship. In the conference meet, Kmieciak tallied the first perfect 10 of her career on bars and just the second in the history of the conference meet on the event. Capps was also a first-team honoree on bars along with Lehrmann and Wofford, and Jackson received second-team recognition. Haley coached two Big 12 champions (Kmieciak on bars, Scaman on floor) and two NCAA Iowa City Regional champions (Wofford on bars, Jackson on floor).

In 2015, Haley aided the Sooners to 12 team event titles on floor in 2015 in addition to 17 individual titles. Haley's work with Scaman led the junior to a team-best nine individual titles throughout the season and her third perfect 10.0 score on the event. Dowell also thrived under Haley's guidance, finishing as NCAA runner-up on floor with a 9.950 in event finals. Both Dowell and Scaman were first-team All-Americans in the event, while Dowell was the Big 12 floor champion and Scaman was NCAA Norman Regional floor champion.

Haley's gymnasts were a force on bars as well, capturing 13 team event titles and 14 individual titles throughout the season. Three gymnasts earned first-team All-America accolades under Haley and Ball and Dowell, Kmieciak and Wofford all finished in the top 10 nationally on the event. Wofford spent several weeks during the regular season ranked No. 1 nationally on bars and capped her season with a fourth-place NCAA finish in event finals.

Haley helped lead Oklahoma to the best season in program history in 2014, coaching the Sooners to a first NCAA title, an NCAA Regional championship and a Big 12 title. Haley coached five Sooner gymnasts to All-America honors in 2014. Lara Albright, Maile'ana Kanewa and Haley Scaman were all first-team All-Americans on floor, while Taylor Spear garnered first-team honors on bars. True freshman Kara Lovan also captured second-team accolades on floor. Kanewa and Scaman each posted 9.950 performances at NCAA Event Finals to tie as national runners-up on the event.

Overall, Haley's gymnasts earned 12 event titles on floor and 11 on bars throughout the season. Under Haley's leadership, Scaman became the first Sooner in program history to post multiple 10.0s in a single season, a career and on an individual event. Scaman earned two 10.0s on floor exercise alone during the season.

Haley guided four OU gymnasts to All-America honors in 2013. Haley and Ball aided Erica Brewer and Rebecca Clark to first-team awards and top-10 NCAA finishes, while Taylor Spears earned second-team accolades. Brie Olson also captured second-team All-America honors on floor under Haley's tutelage. Overall, the Sooners earned 18 individual titles on bars and 13 on floor in 2013.

Haley's coaching was instrumental in Oklahoma's record-setting 2013 campaign, which saw the Sooners finish as runners-up at the NCAA Championships after claiming Big 12 and NCAA Norman Regional titles. While coaching at OU, Haley has guided 11 Sooner All-Americans on bars and eight on floor. An additional six Oklahoma gymnasts have earned Big 12 titles on floor and seven on bars under Haley's direction. Haley's work with the 2012 squad resulted in three All-America honors for the Sooners, who finished seventh at the NCAA Championships. The team also snagged Big 12 and NCAA Champaign Regional titles.

Haley helped the Sooners to back-to-back Super Six appearances and their second consecutive top-three finish in 2011. OU completed its third undefeated regular season in four years in 2011, maintaining the country's longest regular season win streak.

Ball and Haley also coached three OU gymnasts to All-America honors on bars, including two first-teamers. OU won a total of 11 team bar titles and 12 individual bar titles.

In 2010, OU finished in a program-best second place after making its first-ever NCAA Super Six team finals appearance. The Sooners also went undefeated in the regular season, beat No. 1 Alabama and eight other top-25 opponents, claimed their third-straight Big 12 Championship and won the 2010 NCAA University Park Regional title.

After the Sooners' stellar 2010 season, Haley was named National Assistant Coach of the Year along with fellow OU assistant coach Lou Ball. The two also shared 2010 Regional Assistant Coach of the Year honors.

Haley helped the Sooners shine on floor in 2010, as OU scored a 49.000 or higher on the apparatus in every competition. Under Haley's tutelage, senior Hollie Vise finished in second place on floor at the NCAA Individual Event Finals and earned All-American honors on the apparatus in her first season of competition on the event

Vise and fellow senior Jackie Flanery shared the Big 12 title on floor, while Flanery entered NCAA Championships ranked No. 1 in the country on the apparatus.

In 2009, Haley guided the Sooners to seven floor titles, including the conference championship and NCAA Northeast Regional championship.

Haley and Ball's bar squad also captured six team titles in 2009 while Megan Ferguson and Ashley Jackson shared the Big 12 bar title.

In 2008, Haley's floor team posted 13 team event titles, while the bars lineup took home 10 event titles. The Sooners ranked first in the conference and sixth in the country on floor in 2008, posting a season regional qualifying score (RQS) of 49.315. Haley guided Kiara Redmond to All-America honors on floor while Redmond and Brittney Koncak-Schumann earned floor titles at the Big 12 Championship. Redmond went on to post a 9.925 and take top honors on floor at the 2008 NCAA South Central Regional.

Prior to his hiring at OU, Haley coached for three seasons at the University of Kentucky where he was named the 2006 NACGC/W Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year. Before entering collegiate coaching at Kentucky, Haley, a native of San Antonio, Texas, worked as one of the top club coaches in the Southeast.

From 2002-2003, he was the team coach for Level 4 Elite at the Gwinnett Gymnastics Center near Atlanta, Ga. At GGC, he coached two Region 8 Level 10 all-around champions, as well as a 2003 junior international elite qualifying gymnast.

Haley served as the head coach and program director of the `Bama Bounders club program at the University of Alabama from 1996-2002.

With the `Bama Bounders, Haley coached a Level 10 bars national champion, a Level 10 Junior Olympic National Team member and had 10 of his gymnasts receive full athletic scholarships to NCAA Division I programs.

He also served as a volunteer assistant coach for the Alabama women's gymnastics team in 2000 and 2001.

Haley married his wife, Kelli More, in May 2009. They have a son, Levi, and two daughters, Nina and Kaia.

ASHLEY KERR

ASSISTANT COACH - EIGHTH SEASON

2024 NATIONAL ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR

2024 REGIONAL ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR

COACHED TWO NATIONAL CHAMPIONS ON BEAM

COACHED SIX BIG 12 CHAMPIONS ON BEAM

COACHED FOUR GYMNASTS TO 18 PERFECT 10S ON BEAM

Ashley Kerr enters her eighth season in 2025 as the Oklahoma women's gymnastics assistant coach, assisting primarily on beam.

Alongside head coach K.J. Kindler, Kerr guided the beam team to a top-three ranking in the nation each of the past seven years, including back-to-back finishes at No. 1 in 2018 and 2019 and a No. 1 finish in 2024. Over the past seven seasons, Kerr was a part of five NCAA finals teams, including three national championships; six NCAA regional championships teams; and five Big 12 Championship teams. Kerr has helped coach athletes to 18 NCAA All-America honors on beam since her arrival in 2018.

In 2024, she helped guide Audrey Davis and Faith Torrez to OU's first individual national titles on balance beam since 2014. She also led Ragan Smith to a program-record four consecutive perfect scores on balance beam and six overall during the 2024 campaign. Kerr assisted Smith to a second-straight Big 12 Championship on beam with a 10.0.

Kerr competed for the Florida Gators from 2007-2010 and was a four-time member of the NCAA Scholastic All-America team, as well as the SEC Academic Honor Roll. She served as the president of UF's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and was awarded the 2010 Outstanding Leadership Award by the UF Alumni Association.

Upon graduation, Kerr was named Florida's volunteer student manager for the 2011 season, before serving as the team manager from 2011-2013. Most recently, Kerr was the assistant to the head coach at Florida, supporting multiple aspects of the program. Kerr worked with the coaching staff on all on-campus recruiting visits, coordinated team social media activity, and helped with community outreach. She helped plan and organize team travel and assisted the head coach at all team competitions, while working with the marketing department on promotional plans to increase fan interest and attendance. Additionally, she assisted with the planning and execution of summer camps.

In her time at Florida, Kerr worked with three national champion teams, as the Gators won three straight titles from 2013-15. Kerr was a part of 10 Super Six teams and five SEC Championship teams during her time as both a gymnast and a staff member.

Kerr graduated in 2010 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in marketing and minors in mass communication and leadership. She attended grad school at UF, where she earned a Master of Science in sports management and a Master of Arts in telecommunications. Kerr is married to Oklahoma City Thunder head coach Mark Daigneault and they have two children.

JENN RICHARDSON

ATHLETIC TRAINER - NINETEENTH SEASON

An integral part of the Oklahoma women's gymnastics program, Jennifer Richardson enters her 19th season as an athletic trainer at OU in 2025. Richardson is responsible for the daily care, treatment, rehab and prevention of injuries for the men's and women's gymnastics programs.

Richardson earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training from West Virginia University and obtained a master of arts degree in health studies/sports medicine health care from the University of Alabama, where she served as the athletic trainer for the softball team.

The Hamburg, N.Y., native has also served as the athletic trainer for the women's soccer and women's basketball teams at St. Mary's College of California. She worked with the 2005 and 2006 national championship women's gymnastics teams at the University of Georgia prior to her arrival at Oklahoma.

MELISSA SIMMONS

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS - SIXTH SEASON

Melissa Simmons enters her sixth season as the director of operations for the gymnastics program in 2025. Simmons came to OU from N.C. State where she served as the director of operations for the wrestling program from 2014-2019.

Simmons wrestled at Oklahoma City University during her collegiate career. She helped OCU capture three of its four team national championships and three of its five NWCA National Duals titles from 2009-11. She went 73-18 with 42 falls. She became the 2008 72-kilogram national champion, then the 2010 82-kilo national runner-up. After finishing third place at 158 pounds as a junior, Simmons competed on the U.S. World Team.

In 2022, Simmons was the first female to receive the Medal of Courage by the National Wrestling Hall of Fame. The honor is awarded to a wrestler or former wrestler who has overcome what appears to be insurmountable challenges, while providing inspiration to others.

Originally from Ridgefield, Wash., Simmons graduated from Oklahoma City University in 2010 with a B.S. degree in kinesiology and exercise science.

RAGAN SMITH

STUDENT COACH - FIRST SEASON

Ragan Smith, a seven-time All-American is in her first season as a student coach for the Sooners in 2025. Smith assists primarily on beam for the Sooners.

Smith was a member of OU's 2022 and 2023 NCAA National Championship teams. In 2022, her beam routine clinched Oklahoma's fifth national title. The Lewisville, Texas, native was the 2020 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, an four-time Big 12 individual champion, and holds the program record for perfect 10s on beam with 11.

Smith graduated in May 2024 with a degree in Multidisciplinary Studies w/ a minor in Digital Marketing. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in Adult and Higher Education - Intercollegiate Athletics Administration.

LINDSEY MAGNESS

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS - SEVENTH SEASON

Lindsey Magness returned to Oklahoma Athletics in August 2023 and serves as the Associate Director of Athletics Communications, primarily overseeing the six-time national champion women's gymnastics team and volleyball team. In her role, she coordinates social media efforts and media requests and oversees all content for women's gymnastics and volleyball on SoonerSports.com.

After a five-year stint with the Sooners, Magness left the athletics industry and served as the Assistant Communications Director for Science Museum Oklahoma in Oklahoma City from May 2022-August 2023.

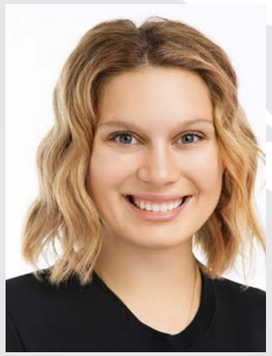
During her first stop at Oklahoma, Magness oversaw communications efforts for women's soccer and women's gymnastics from 2017-2022. During her five-year tenure, the women's gymnastics team won two national championships and three Big 12 titles. She served as the media contact for three national athletes of the year in Maggie Nichols, who won both the Honda Award for Gymnastics and the AAI Award, often considered the Hesiman Trophy of gymnastics, and Anastasia Webb who was the first Honda Award Top Three Finalist in gymnastics program history.

Prior to Oklahoma, Magness spent three years at the University of South Florida where she oversaw communications efforts for women's soccer, softball, baseball, men's soccer and men's and women's tennis.

Magness is a 2013 graduate of Oklahoma with a Bachelor of Arts in journalism with a specialization in public relations and a minor in American history. A native of Grand Prairie, Texas, Magness lives with her husband, Shane, and dog, Brooks, in downtown Oklahoma City.

MADGE LISTER

STUDENT MANAGER - THIRD SEASON



Madge Lister is in her third season as a student manager for the women's gymnastics program. Lister is responsible for designing presenting decks, assisting with NIL initiatives, overseeing the social media efforts for the program's booster club (Team 10), along with other duties as assigned.

Lister hails from Oklahoma City, Okla., where she graduated from the Casady School. She played field hockey and softball in high school and was the manager of the field hockey team as a senior. Lister is majoring in marketing and sports business at OU and will graduate in May 2025.

MORGAN STREETER

STUDENT MANAGER - SECOND SEASON

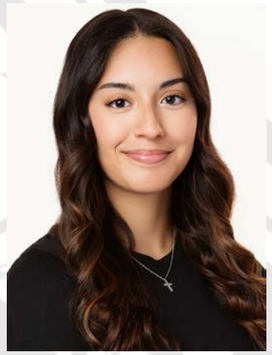
Morgan Streeter is in her second season as a student manager for the women's gymnastics team, assisting with many of the day-to-day aspects of the women's gymnastics program. Streeter is responsible for moving mats and boards for team on events, gym maintenance, laundry and other duties as assigned.

Streeter hails from Lucas, Texas where she graduated from Lovejoy High School. In high school, Streeter ran varsity relayes and hurdles all four years. Her parents, Beth and Brian, run Metroplex Gymnastics in Allen, Texas, where she was a gymnast for 14 years.

Streeter is a sophomore majoring in criminology at OU.

ALYSSA OJEDA

STUDENT MANAGER - FIRST SEASON



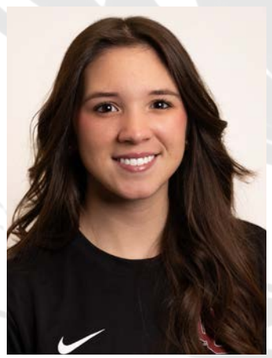
Alyssa Ojeda is in her first season as a student manager for the women's gymnastics team. Ojeda will assist with many of the day-to-day aspects of the women's gymnastics program. She is responsible for moving mats and boards for team on events, gym maintenance, laundry and other duties as assigned.

Ojeda hails from Moore, Okla., where she attended Epic On-On-One Charter School. She attended Dynamo Gymnastics where she was a level 10 gymnast and qualified to JO Nationals in 2019. She committed to Mizzou in 2021 and was a member of the team for two seasons before suffering a career-ending injury and returning to her home state.

Ojeda is a junior majoring in health & exercise science with an emphasis in pre-physical therapy.

REESE MIMS

STUDENT MANAGER - FIRST SEASON



Reese Mims is in her first season as a student manager for the women's gymnastics team assisting with many of the day-to-day aspects of the women's gymnastics program. Mims is responsible for moving mats and boards for team on events, gym maintenance, laundry and other duties as assigned.

Mims hails from Las Vegas, Nev., where she attended West Career and Technical Academy. She did gymnastics for 15 years, attending three different gyms over that time.

Mims is a sophomore majoring in health and exercise science.

ABBIE HERKELMAN

TEAM NUTRITIONIST - THIRD SEASON

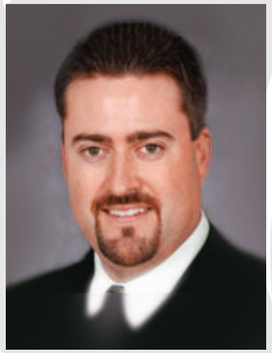
After serving two-and-a-half years as a graduate assistant and intern with the Arkansas Razorbacks, and another three years as an intern with Kansas State, Herkelman assumed the role of Assistant Director of Sports Nutrition for the Sooners.

A licensed dietitian, Herkelman is responsible for keeping OU's student-athletes fueled for success that stretches beyond competition. In her second year at OU, she primarily works with both the men's and women's basketball programs, along with women's gymnastics.

The Coffeyville, Kan., native earned her bachelor's degree in dietetics/dietitian from Kansas State and obtained her master's degree in kinesiology and exercise science.

DR. TED BOEHM

TEAM DOCTOR - 15TH SEASON



Dr. Ted Boehm enters his 15th season as the primary care physician for women's gymnastics. Boehm works as a Sports Medicine Physician at the Oklahoma Sports & Orthopedics Institute in Oklahoma City. Boehm also works with OU's football, men's gymnastics, rowing and wrestling teams.

Boehm, originally from Merced, Calif., earned a bachelor's degree in health and sport sciences from the University of Oklahoma in 1999, and his medical degree from the OU College of Medicine in 2003.

Boehm treats any illnesses and injuries of his primary care sports' student athletes at the OU training room or at OU's Goddard Health Center. Boehm also provides sideline and event coverage during men's and women's gymnastics meets, football games and wrestling matches.

JOSEPH HARROZ, JR.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

erving the University of Oklahoma for over 28 years in various leadership roles, Joseph Harroz Jr. was named the 15th president of OU on May 9, 2020. Harroz's previous service to the university includes a one-year term as interim president, nine years as dean of the College of Law, 12 years as general counsel, and two years as vice president for executive affairs.

Under Harroz's leadership, over the last four years the university has ambitiously pursued the fulfillment of its "Lead On, University" Strategic Plan, sparking a new era of excellence and elevating OU's position as a top-tier public research university with life-changing impact.

The last three years have seen record-breaking freshman classes at OU, with the fall 2024 incoming class on track to become OU's largest yet. Last fall's incoming class of nearly 5,200 students represented an 11% increase over the previous year, and the class broke other university records, with the largest percentage of first-generation students and more underserved students than any other year. OU's research momentum continues to accelerate, reaching a record $386 million in externally funded research awarded across the university. The OU research enterprise has achieved an average 16% annual growth rate over the last four years and ranks among the top 8% of research universities nationally. The historic merger in 2021 to create OU Health has brought immense benefits to the state and its people. As Oklahoma's first comprehensive academic health system, OU Health is delivering world-class health care, training tomorrow's health professionals, and meeting the toughest medical challenges with pioneering research and innovation.

An abundance of other successes have come to life since the Strategic Plan's introduction — the announcement of a historic $2 billion fundraising campaign, a continued focus on balancing excellence with affordability, the addition of premier freshman housing, entering the SEC, and more.

A native Oklahoman, Harroz graduated Phi Beta Kappa from OU in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and a minor in zoology. He earned his J.D. in 1992 from Georgetown University Law Center.

JOE CASTIGLIONE

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAMS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Few collegiate athletics administrators have experienced the long-term success that Joe Castiglione has enjoyed at the University of Oklahoma.

In his 27th year at the helm of the legendary program, he leads an OU Athletics Department that hardly resembles the one that welcomed him in July of 1998. From conference realignment — now in the Southeastern Conference after 28 years in the Big 12 — to fundraising records and significant growth in capital projects, Castiglione has shaped and stewarded the department's widespread and longstanding success. In fact, the Sooners have won 25 of their 44 team national championships since he arrived in Norman. He has celebrated 113 conference titles in that same period.

By creating a positive culture based on core values, a dynamic vision and a collaborative spirit, Castiglione has made OU Athletics a "destination of choice" and a world-class experience for student-athlete development.

Of course, Oklahoma is not immune to any of the challenges intercollegiate athletics has faced in the past quarter century, and through it all, Castiglione has stood unwavering in his commitment to position OU Athletics as one of the nation's premier programs. For many, it was his response to the COVID-19 pandemic that demonstrated the leader he really is.

As the pandemic arrived, then continued to worsen, Castiglione led the department through the sudden ending of the academics and athletics year with a calm and determined approach. His leadership gave OU's student-athletes, coaches and staff ample reasons to be confident the Sooners would get through the challenges that awaited. Their confidence was warranted.

After an incredibly successful 2022-23 athletics campaign, the 2023-24 academic year yielded OU's eighth softball national championship, including an unprecedented fourth straight and sixth in the last eight seasons. Women's gymnastics, which was ranked No. 1 the entire regular season and set the NCAA single-meet scoring record, won its 11th conference title in the last 12 years, while women's basketball secured its eighth regular season league crown (second consecutive) and baseball won its first-ever regular season Big 12 championship.

The Learfield Director's Cup recognizes overall program excellence. The Sooners have ranked among the top 25 in 21 of Castiglione's 26 years and finished 10th in 2021-22, their best showing since 2012-13. (With the interruption of competition schedules, the Learfield Director's Cup was not awarded for 2019-20.)

Individually, OU student-athletes during Castiglione's tenure have flourished, producing countless all-conference, All-America and national-player-of-the-year honors, including Heisman Trophy winners Jason White, Sam Bradford, Baker Mayfield and Kyler Murray, Naismith and Wooden Award winners Blake Griffin and Buddy Hield, and USA Softball Collegiate Players of the Year Keilani Ricketts and Jocelyn Alo (twice each). Alo is the NCAA's all-time record holder in home runs. Sooners were named Big 12 Athlete of the Year 15 times in the 28-year history of the league, including 11 times over the past 12 years.

GPA numbers and graduation rates continue to set program records under Castiglione's watch. OU's standard-setting 3.27 cumulative 2024 spring semester GPA marked the 25th consecutive term that OU's student-athletes as a group recorded a 3.0 or better figure. And the latest graduation success rate report (2023-24) reflects an OU-record-tying 89% figure.

OU Athletics, one of the few remaining self-sustaining departments nationally, has been a model of fiscal responsibility, closing the books in the black in each of Castiglione's first 22 years, including the pandemic-shortened 2019-20 season, and again in 2021-22, 2022-23 and 2023-24. His responsible approach has benefited the general campus. Through direct and indirect support, the athletics department provides millions of dollars annually to OU's academic budget. It also established an endowment at Bizzell Library and partnered with the president's office to eliminate the admission fee at OU's internationally known Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art.

Athletics facilities improvement and construction have been carried out at a record pace and Castiglione takes pride in the fact that the majority of those improvements have been funded with private donations. He was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign at the turn of the century, Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports, that impacted each of OU's athletics programs and became a national model. During the 2021-22 fiscal year, OU Athletics received a record-breaking $109 million in donations and pledges (the previous single-year record was $58 million), and followed in 2022-23 with its second-highest figure in school history ($79 million). At time of publication, the 2023-24 fiscal year was expected to yield another record-breaking fundraising year.

A $160 million Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium renovation was completed prior to the 2017 season and included enclosure of the south end zone, new seating options for Sooner fans and new team facilities. The Griffin Family Performance Center for men's and women's basketball at Lloyd Noble Center opened in 2018. Refurbished men's and women's basketball team areas and construction on a new softball stadium — Love's Field — were completed in spring 2024. Other projects underway include new team facilities for golf, gymnastics and tennis, with major renovations planned for baseball. The $75 million Headington Hall provides housing for the general student population as well as student-athletes and is recognized as making OU the leader in providing an engaging community living option for students. The state-of-the-art building opened in August 2013 and has won the President's Trophy as the outstanding housing unit on campus five times.

In 2021, Castiglione recommended to the OU President and Board of Regents that the university seek membership in the Southeastern Conference for an eventual 2025 move. Castiglione, who played a large role in the formation of the Big 12, ensured OU fulfilled its obligations to the league, which the Sooners joined in 1996. After negotiating an agreeable earlier exit from the Big 12, OU entered the SEC officially on July 1, 2024, after 28 years in the Big 12. The decision arguably set in motion a series of conference realignments that followed throughout the then-Power Five conferences. Membership in the SEC for OU, according to Castiglione, was always about seizing future stability for the university at a time of great disruption within intercollegiate athletics.

Castiglione was named Co-National Athletic Director of the Year in May 2018 by Sports Business Journal. He had won the award in 2009 and been a finalist in 2016. A survey conducted by Sports Illustrated in the summer of 2017 named him the best athletics director in the country, and Stadium selected him in 2020 as the nation's top AD. Other awards and honors include the 2023 LEAD1 Association Pearl Award of Excellence, 2018 Katha Quinn Award (U.S. Basketball Writers of America); 2018 induction into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame; the 2013 John L. Toner Award (National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame); Carl Maddox Sports Management Award (United States Sports Academy); 2000 and 2018 Athletics Director of the Year (NACDA); 2004 Athletics Director of the Year (Bobby Dodd Foundation); 2003 induction into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame; and the 2001 General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement (All-American Football Foundation).

He earned a master's of education degree in May 2007 and became an adjunct professor in OU's Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education, teaching graduate classes in marketing, development and leadership in higher education. He serves on the college's board of advocates and received the "Award of Distinction" given by the college in 2019. He was recognized for his distinguished service by OU's College of Arts and Sciences and was named a Price College Distinguished Partner in 2018.

Hired on April 30, 1998, Castiglione previously served as athletics director at Missouri for five years. His career began as the sports promotions director at Rice. Other stops included director of athletic fundraising at Georgetown, then director of communications and marketing at Missouri. He marks his 32nd year of serving student-athletes as an athletics director with the 2024-25 academic year.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the university's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007 and was inducted into the State of Missouri's Sports Hall of Fame in November 2015.

He completed a term on the College Football Playoff Committee in January 2021, making him the only person in history to serve on that committee as well as the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball and Baseball committees. He has served on multiple NCAA committees and commissions, including the NCAA's Board of Governor's Commission to Combat Sexual Violence on Campus, NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the United States Olympic Committee Athlete Career and Education Strategic Working Group. He formerly served on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and continues to serve on the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors.

Castiglione is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He also served three terms as the chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors. A former member of the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees, he is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes. In November 2011, his hometown recognized him by selecting him for the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

Locally, he has served the United Way of Norman, among other organizations. His third term as OU's campus co-chair resulted in the highest recorded contributions ever by faculty, staff and students to the United Way of Norman's annual campaign. He encourages student-athletes and athletics staff to engage in those efforts as well, with OU Athletics representatives having been known to participate in more than 5,000 hours of community service per year.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Jr., who earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and a master's degree from Oklahoma in 2019 and 2021, respectively, and Jonathan, who graduated from OU in 2023 with a bachelor's degree in journalism (creative media production).

LEAVING A LEGACY

OKLAHOMA GYMNASTICS

LAST ONE STANDING

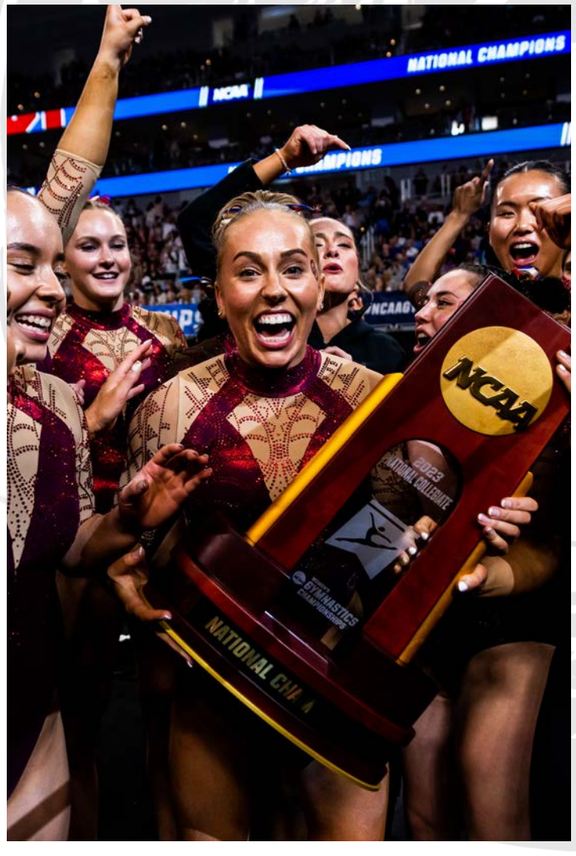
2023

Make it two in a row, three of the last four and six of the last nine.

Fending off a surging Florida team. the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team posted an NCAA record tying 198.3875 to claim the programs sixth national title over Florida, Utah and LSU. The 2023 season was the Sooners' 10th straight and 12th overall trip to the team finals. In each of their 12 appearances in the finals, the Sooners have finished within the top three and have finished in the top two every year since 2016.

Though the Sooners led wire-to-wire, the meet came down to the final rotation as a lights-out Florida rotation posted its best NCAA Championships score in school history on bars with a 49.7125. OU delivered in a big way with all six competitors earning a 9.9 or highesr for a 49.675 on the event. Danae Fletcher's 9.9375 in the No. 5 spot clinched the meet and Danielle Sievers put the cherry on top with a 9.950.

"What these women did today was absolutely incredible. I was just so impressed by the way they took over the arena from the very beginning of the meet all the way to the end. And then when they were pushed, they didn't falter. I'm just incredibly proud of their performance. They put themselves in such a great place after the regional and hitting floor the way they did then. It was perfect that we ended on that event today. Just perfect."



WILL TO WIN

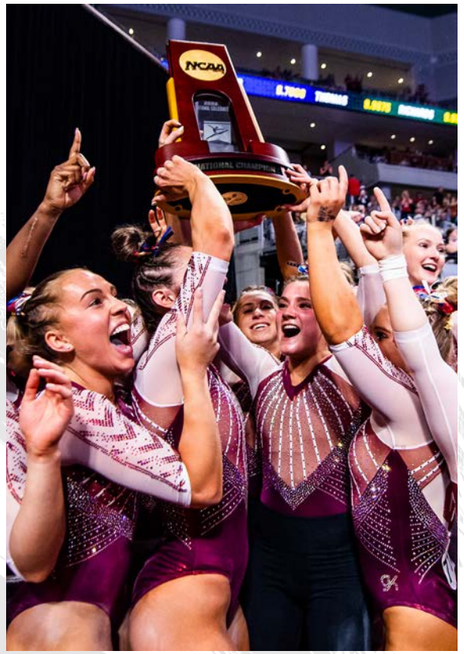
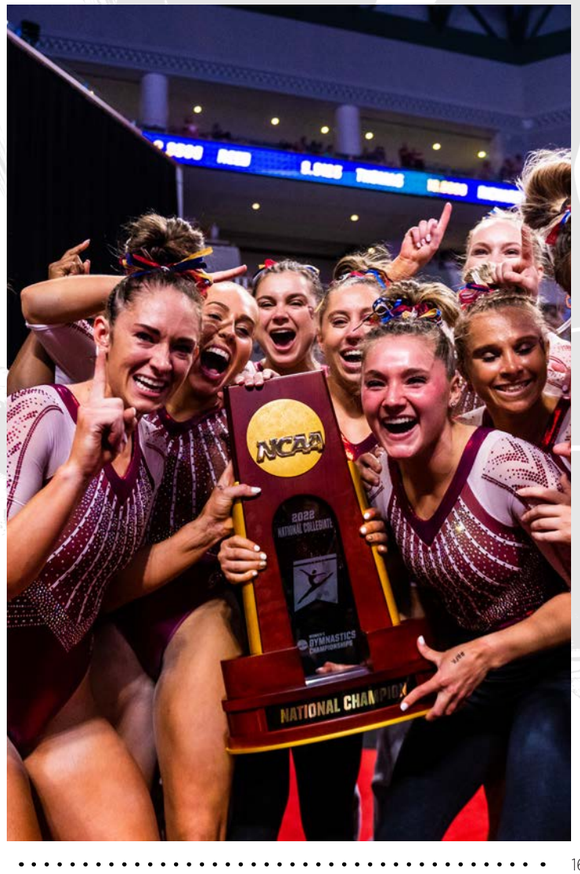
A comeback for the ages.

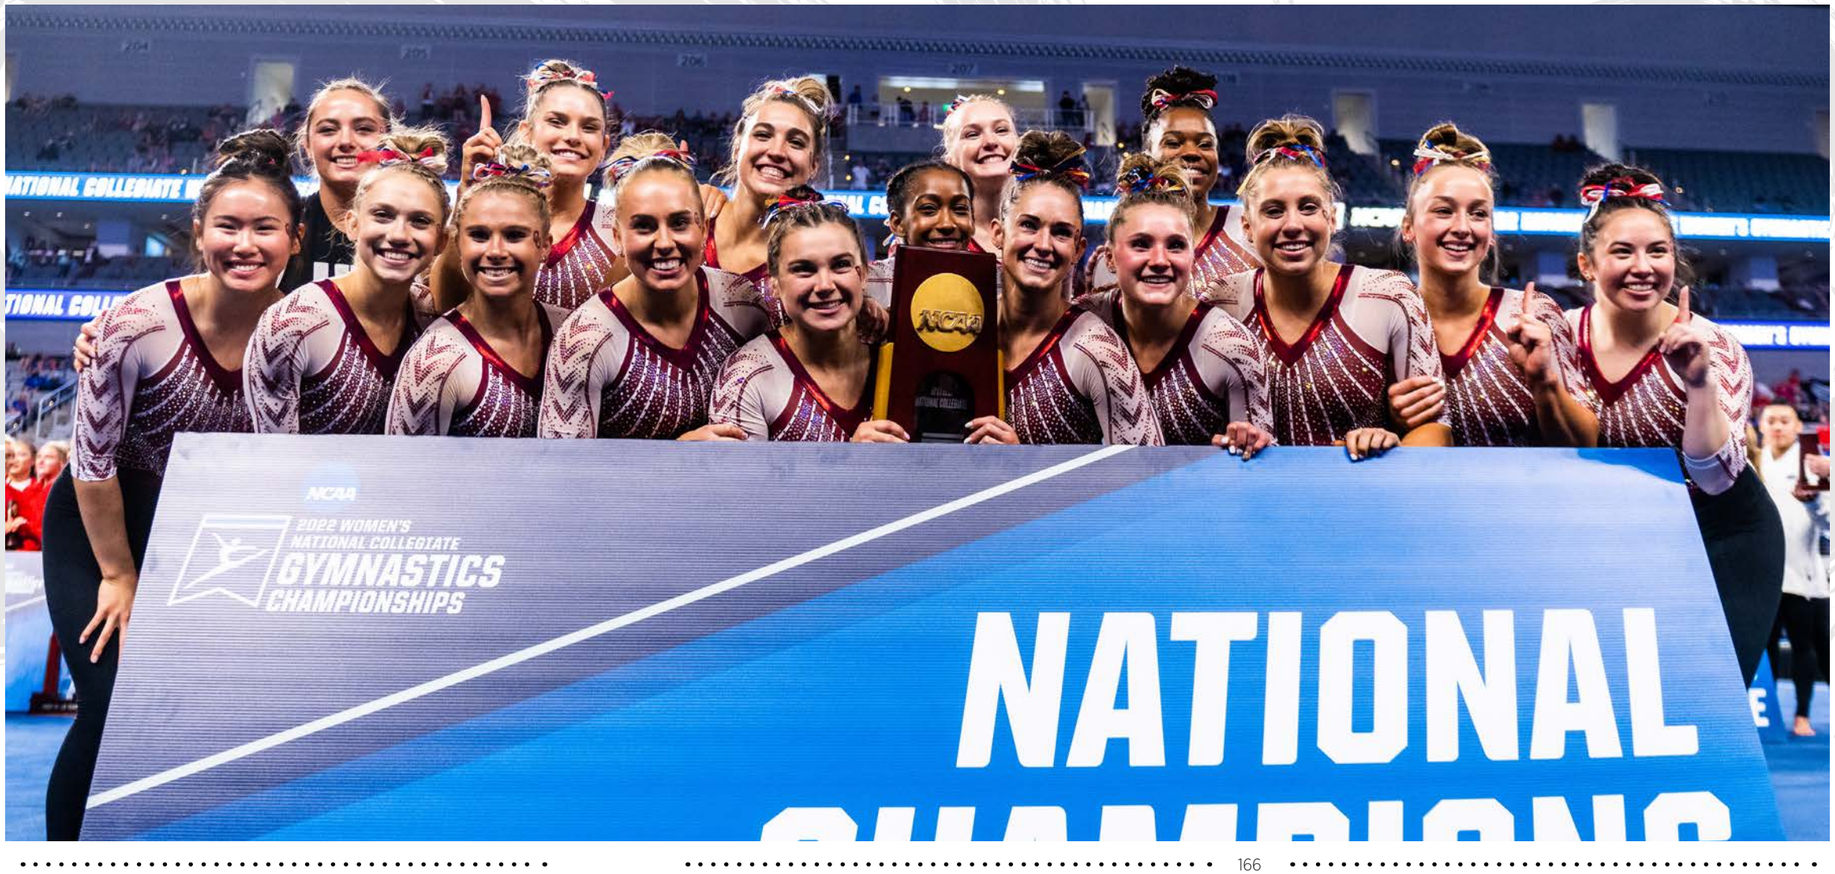
In fourth place after the first rotation, the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team was lights-out in the final three rotations to claim the program's fifth national championship. The Sooners posted a 198.200 to claim the 2022 national title over Florida, Utah and Auburn. The 2022 season marked the Sooners' ninth straight and 11th overall trip to the team finals. In each of their 11 appearances in the finals, the Sooners have finished within the top three. This was Oklahoma's fifth national title in the last eight years.

The Sooners completed the "Triple Crown" of gymnatics, winning the 2022 Big 12 Championship, Norman Regional title and the NCAA Championship. In one of the most incredible victories, the Sooners never gave up despite the slow start, ultimately coming out on top. With a 198.200 in the finals, the Sooners tied their NCAA record with 10 scores of 198-plus in a single season.

"Wow. I don't know if you guys have seen anything like that before, I personally have not," head coach K.J. Kindler said. "What fight and heart they had to fight back after floor. They didn't count themselves out and they pushed every single event after that. I can't say enough about the youth of our team, we have a very young team, but we had incredible seniors and juniors that led us all the way. I can't say enough about how great this team was today. They're fighters until the end and it would've been easy to count themselves out."- head coach K.J. Kindler







DID IT FOR DAVE

The Sooners, who dedicated the 2019 season to Dave Richardson, the late husband of their athletic trainer Jenn, posted a 198.3375 in the Four on the Floor to claim the national title at the 2019 NCAA Championships. With Dave in their hearts and on their minds, the Sooners would be unbeatable as they claimed their fourth overall national championship. OU posted a 32-0 record, the second undefeated season in program history.

On the outside, the season looked easy, but the 2019 team fought more adversity than most will ever know. When Dave passed in mid-February, the team turned their focus to fighting for a purpose and something bigger than gymanstics. With #DIFD written on their hands for every meet, the Sooners won an eighth straight Big 12 Championship, a 10th straight regional title, produced three individual national champions, 18 All-Americans and closed out the season with their third title in four years.

"It is unbelievable That was the cumulation of what our season was and tonight Dave was absolutely lifting us up. I know Jenn just lost her cookies at the end of the meet and so did we, because she said to me 'All I can say is there must be a greater purpose for it'."- head coach K.J. Kindler

ENDED ON EMPTY

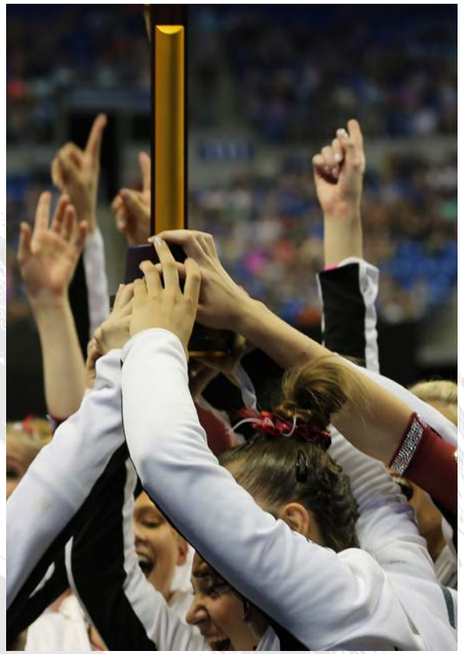
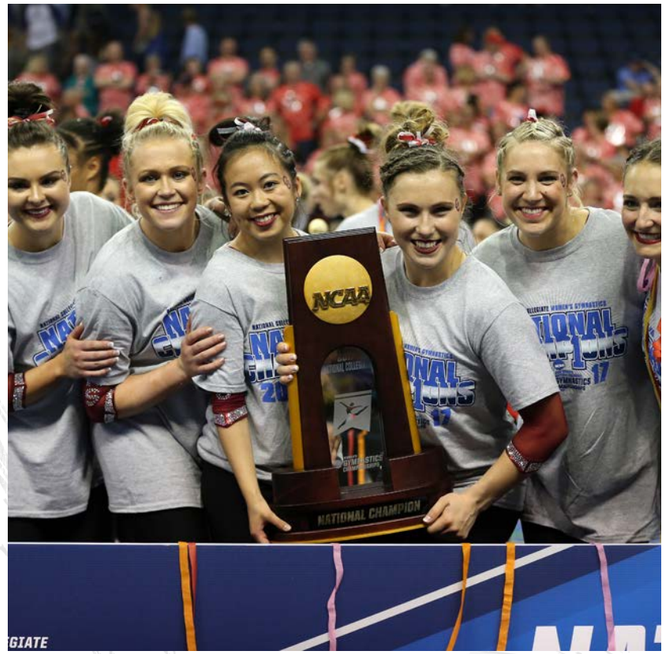
The biggest stage in the sport couldn't intimidate the Sooners as they soared to an unprecedented 198.3875, setting the NCAA record for a team score in a Super Six– and securing their second-straight and third overall national championship in 2017. The Super Six appearance was the seventh in the last eight seasons and in each of those, the Sooners finished within the top three nationally. OU rolled from the beginning with a 49.5875 on bars and a 49.7000 on beam. The Sooners posted a perfect 33-0 record, the first undefeated season in program history.

Perfection doesn't come easy, and the 2017 Sooners used heart and grit to make history as the first Sooner squad to post an undefeated season. With its second-straight national championship and third in the last four years, a sixth-straight Big 12 Championship, eighth-straight regional title, two individual national champions, and 12 All-America honors, the 2017 squad cemented itself in history as one of the most prolific teams the program has ever seen.

"It felt crazy, really. I almost felt like I wasn't here—it was that amazing. To have that kind of a performance from a coaching standpoint, wow. As an athlete, to be in that state of mind and to get your body to do what they got their bodies to do tonight over and over and over, performance after performance—I don't think you see that very often, and I don't know if we've done it at the national championship before the way we did tonight. It's just a really special night." - head coach K.J. Kindler





MADE IT COUNT

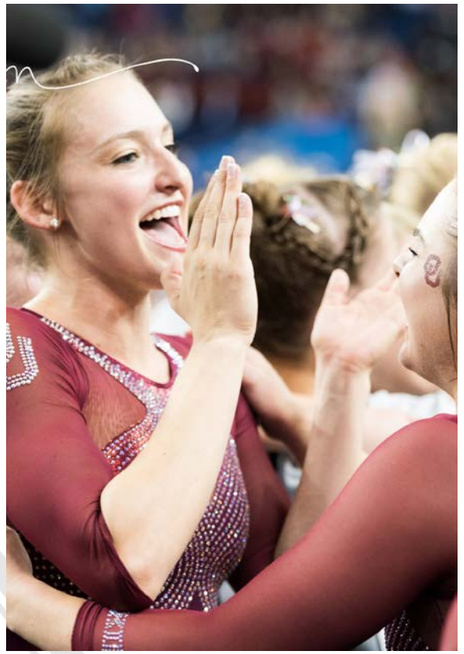
The motto for the 2016 Oklahoma squad all season was to make it count. On the sport's biggest stage, the Sooners did just that. With a 197.6750, Oklahoma secured the 2016 NCAA Championship. The NCAA title was their second all-time, with the first coming in 2014. The Super Six appearance was OU's sixth in the last seven seasons and in each of those, OU finished within the top three nationally. With the meet close entering the final rotation, Oklahoma rose to the occasion, using a little bit of Sooner Magic to turn in a 49.5750 on floor. The clinching routine came from sophomore AJ Jackson in the No. 5 spot, whose 9.9125 pushed the Sooners to the top of the leaderboard.

The Sooners entered the postseason with "Make it Count" in mind, striving to be push themselves and be their best each and every meet. This paid off in the form of their NCAA title, capping a season in which the Sooners posted a 38-1-0 overall record, with their lone loss coming in their season opener. Other highlights included nine Sooners earning a program-record 18 All-America honors, an unprecedented fifth straight Big 12 title and seventh consecutive regional crown.

"What do you say? One of the girls this morning, when she woke up, tweeted, 'It felt like Christmas Eve last night—I couldn't go to bed anticipating today.' It turns out that's exactly what it was. Christmas Day is always a wonderful day when you're a kid. Today was just an amazing and wonderful day for these ladies and our entire team. They had to fight for it. We learned a lot last year, I think, and they applied it today." - head coach K.J. Kindler



SOONERS GOT SOUL

April 19 was a night filled with soul and Sooner Magic in Birmingham, Ala., aptly dubbed "The Magic City." Oklahoma hit a then-best score in NCAA Championships history at the 2014 Super Six team finals, earning a 198.175 to capture co-national championship honors alongside the Florida Gators. The Sooners set program records at an NCAA Championship on every event, scoring no lower than a 49.500 on any apparatus and posting 17 individual scores of 9.9 or higher.

It was a year made to rewrite the record books. Oklahoma's team score of 198.175 in the Super Six finals was a new NCAA Championship record, while its 198.000 at the 2014 Big 12 Championship was a conference championship record mark. OU set new program records on vault (49.700) and bars (49.575) while posting four overall team scores, four vault scores, two bars scores, two beam scores and two floor scores that rank in the top five team marks all-time at Oklahoma.

"Our team was just in a magical place from the second we got here tonight. We worked through practice, we worked through yesterday's meet, but today we didn't work at all. There was very little error from our team. That's the best we can do. We knew coming in that we could do it. I don't think anyone else really gave us a chance. But, I think that we knew we could do it. Now the dream is a reality." - head coach K.J. Kindler

WITH JUST FOUR INDIVIDUAL NATIONAL TITLES BEFORE 2014, ALL WON BY KELLY GARRISON IN 1987 AND 1988, THE ATHLETES TO COME THROUGH THE OU GYMNASTICS PROGRAM IN THE LAST FEW YEARS HAVE BEGUN CEMENTING THEMSELVES ON THE TOP OF THE PODIUM. TAYLOR SPEARS BROKE A 26-YEAR DROUGHT TO WIN THE NATIONAL TITLE ON BEAM IN 2014 AND HAS COMBINED WITH FIVE OTHER SOONERS TO EARN 14 INDIVIDUAL NATIONAL TITLES IN THE LAST TEN YEARS. MAGGIE NICHOLS IS THE PROGRAM RECORD HOLDER WITH SIX INDIVIDUAL TITLES, INCLUDING THREE AT THE 2018 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS AND BACK-TO-BACK ALL-AROUND TITLES IN 2018 AND 2019. NICHOLS' VICTORY ON FLOOR AND BRENNA DOWELL'S FIRST-PLACE MARK IN ON VAULT IN 2018 GAVE OKLAHOMA AN INDIVIDUAL CHAMPION ON ALL FOUR EVENTS AND THE ALL-AROUND, ONE OF JUST EIGHT PROGRAMS TO ACCOMPLISH THE FEAT. IN 2019, NICHOLS AND DOWELL WENT BACK-TO-BACK ON VAULT AND FLOOR, WINNING NATIONAL TITLES ON THE APPARATUS THEIR TEAMMATE HAD SECURED THE YEAR BEFORE. IN 2021, ANASTASIA WEBB JOINED AN EXCLUSIVE CLUB, BECOMING THE NINTH GYMNAST IN NCAA HISTORY TO EARN THREE TITLES IN ONE CHAMPIONSHIP AS SHE WON VAULT, FLOOR AND THE ALL-AROUND. AFTER BEING TOLD TO MEDICALLY RETIRE BEFORE THE 2023 SEASON, OLIVIA TRAUTMAN GAVE GYMNASTICS ONE MORE SHOT AND ENDED HER FINAL SEASON AS THE 2023 VAULT NATIONAL CHAMPION.

KELLY GARRISON

1987 NCAA ALL-AROUND CHAMPION
1988 NCAA ALL-AROUND CHAMPION, UNEVEN BARS CHAMPION & BALANCE BEAM CHAMPION

Kelly Garrison certainly made the most of her two seasons with the Sooners, racking up four NCAA individual titles en route to seven All-America honors. The Altus, Okla., native dominated the 1987 season like few collegiate gymnasts have ever done, winning the NCAA all-around title with a record score of 39.150, securing event wins on every apparatus at the Big Eight Championship, winning the all-around crown at 17 of 18 dual meets and setting three NCAA records in the process. Garrison qualfied for the event finals in three of four events at the 1987 NCAA Championships, but had to withdraw from vault and floor exercise due to an ankle injury. Throughout the 1987 campaign, Garrison topped the previous NCAA all-around record (38.85), held by Megan Marsden (Utah) and Elfi Schlegel (Florida), seven times. Garrison followed up her spectacular season by sweeping all five individual titles at the Big Eight Championship for the second straight season. She then earned All-America status in every category possible at the 1988 NCAA Championships, securing three national titles in the process.

TAYLOR SPEARS

2014 NCAA BALANCE BEAM CHAMPION

Taylor Spears rose to incredible heights throughout her career at Oklahoma, culminating in a spot on the podium that no Sooner had held for 26 years. Spears became Oklahoma's first NCAA Champion since 1987 as a senior, winning the national title on beam with a 9.925 at individual event finals. An All-Big 12 pick on beam her freshman year, Spears contributed primarily as a three-event specialist in her first year at OU. Despite not competing on vault as a freshman. Spears leapt head-first into the all-around for Oklahoma as a sophomore, earning her second-career All-Big 12 award on beam. Spears' breakout season came in 2013 as the junior rose to become one of the nation's top all-arounders. The Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, Spears won her first two career All-America honors on bars and in the all-around at the NCAA Championships. She was also the only gymnast in the nation to win the all-around title at both the conference and regional level. Spears capped her stellar ascent in style as a senior, earning first-team All-America honors on both bars and beam and capturing the NCAA beam title. She was also a finalist for the prestigious AAI Award, recognizing the nation's top female senior gymnast.

NICOLE LEHRMANN

2017 NCAA UNEVEN BARS CHAMPION

One of the steadiest competitors on the unveven bars, Nicole Lehrmann wasn't a name most would have standing on the top of the podium at the 2017 NCAA Championships. Though consistent throughout the year, hitting 100 percent of her routines and putting up a perfect score, Lehrmann ranked outside the top 10 at the end of the season, coming in 12th with an RQS of 9.910. Her time to shine would come during the first semifinal of the 2017 NCAA Championships as the sophomore earned a 9.950 on the uneven bars. Lehrmann continued her success in the 2018 season, racking up a streak of 17 straight meets with a score of at least 9.9 on the event and placing third at the 2018 NCAA Championships.

MAGGIE NICHOLS

2017 NCAA UNEVEN BARS CHAMPION
2018 NCAA ALL-AROUND CHAMPION. UNEVEN BARS CHAMPION & FLOOR EXERCISE CHAMPION
2019 NCAA ALL-AROUND CHAMPION, VAULT CHAMPION

Maggie Nichols was an unstoppable force as soon as she arrived at Oklahoma in 2017. She took the college gymnastics world by storm as a freshman and looked poised to take home the all-around title at the end of the season. Though a fall on beam would prevent her from the title, Nichols came home an individual champion with a 9.950 on the bars to secure the title with fellow teammate Nicole Lehrmann. Nichols would get redemption in the all-around in 2018, bringing home three individual titles in one season. Nichols tied the NCAA Championships all-around record with a 39.825 to secure the top spot on the podium. With a perfect 10 on bars to become the first gymnast to ever complete two "Gym Slams", Nichols picked up her second career title on the event. She wrapped up her incredible night with a 9.9625 on floor to take home her third title of the night and fourth of her career. In 2019, Nichols became the sixth gymnast in NCAA history to repeat as the all-around champion, earning the title with a 39.7125. She also added a national title on vault, leaving her just needing beam in order to have a title on every event and the all-around. Nichols' senior season was cut short due to COVID-19, ultimately leaving her without a final chance to make even more history. With six individual career titles, Nichols is now the OU program record holder.

BRENNA DOWELL

2018 NCAA VAULT CHAMPION
2019 NCAA FLOOR CHAMPION

Brenna Dowell was arguably one of the most powerful gymnasts in the NCAA. From her incredible tumbling on floor to her impressive vaults, Dowell shined throughout her collegiate career. After finishing just shy of the top of the podium in 2015 with a runner-up finish on floor, Dowell would find herself in the top spot on a different event three years later. During the 2018 season, Dowell had one of the most powerful Yurchenko 1.5s, earning her first career perfect 10 on the event at UCLA on Feb. 4. She spent most of the year ranked in the top five on the event, finishing the regular season ranked third in the country. During Semifinal II of the NCAA Championships Dowell had a near perfect vault, earning a 9.9375 to win the vault title. Dowell was just the fifth Sooner to earn an individual crown and just the third to earn two as she added a floor title to her resume in 2019. In her final season of collegiate competition, Dowell broke out her signature move, a front double pike known as the "Dowell" in international competition. At the 2019 NCAA Championship, Dowell earned a 9.95 in Semifinal II to earn her second career individual national championship.

ANASTASIA WEBB

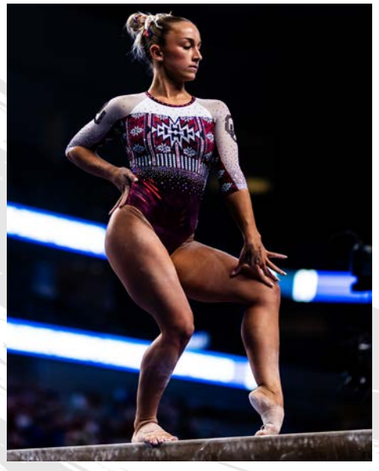
2021 NCAA ALL-AROUND CHAMPION, VAULT CHAMPION & FLOOR CHAMPION

Anastasia Webb wrapped up her collegiate career by cementing herself as one of the best gymnasts to wear the crimson and cream. She became just the ninth gymnast in NCAA history and third Sooner to win three titles at one championship. One of the most underrated gymnasts in the NCAA, Webb stunned the gym world with her All-Around victory in 2021. She was nearly perfect on vault and showed off her dynamic dancing on floor to take home titles on both events. Webb achieved a feat no other Sooner has accomplished as she was named a Top Three Finalist for the prestigous Honda Cup Award. Webb was the Honda Sport Award Winner for Gymnastics, Big 12 Female Athlete of the Year, Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, an AAI Award Finalist and five-time All-American in 2021. She ranks third all-time in OU history with three national titles.

OLIVIA TRAUTMAN

2023 NCAA VAULT CHAMPION

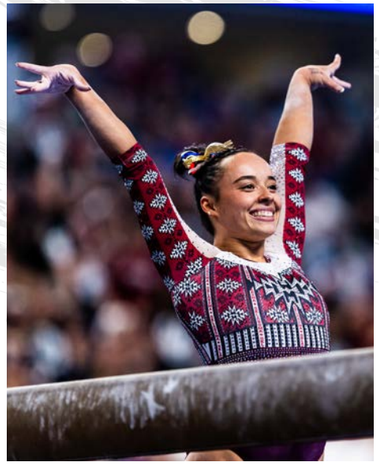
Olivia Trautman may be one of the most resillient gymnasts to ever come through Norman, Oklahoma. After a breakout freshman season, Trautman sustained significant injuries in each of the next four years during preseason training that forced her to miss the start of, or even much of, each of those seasons. The most recent injury in the fall of 2022 resulted in team physicians and coaches recommending she medically retire from the sport. She did not follow that advice and returned in spectacular fashion in 2023. After missing the first three meets of the season following surgery to repair a torn patellar tendon in her knee, the 10-time NCAA All-American won her first NCAA individual title in April when she scored a 9.950 on vault at the NCAA Championships. Trautman became the fourth Sooners to win the vault national title and the first since Anastasia Webb in 2021.



AUDREY DAVIS

2024 NCAA UNEVEN BARS & BALANCE BEAM CHAMPION

Considered by most to be the best uneven bars worker in the nation, Audrey Davis proved why she was the No. 1 ranked gymnast at the end of the 2024 regular season by claiming her first individual national title on the event. Davis earned her first career perfect 10 on the event on March 3 in a season that saw her earn 15 scores of 9.9 or better on the apparatus as she hit 100 percent of her routines. At the 2024 NCAA Semifinals, Davis' consistency and determination paid off as she tallied a 9.9625 to claim her first individual crown. Just moments later, she would claim her second individual title with a 9.9625 on beam. Though one of the most consistent beam workers in the leadoff spot, Davis was outside the top 10 in the rankings, coming in at No. 16 with a 9.935 NQS headed into postseason. A stellar routine on the balance beam made Davis just the third OU gymnast to claim a national title on beam and the first since Taylor Spears in 2014.



FAITH TORREZ

2024 NCAA BALANCE BEAM CHAMPION

A top-five gymnast on the balance beam in 2024, Faith Torrez wasn't a name most were throwing out to bring home the balance beam title with the likes of Ragan Smith and Maile O'Keefe also competing. With 14 scores of 9.9 or higher on the year and four-straight over 9.925 as she headed into semifinals, Torrez proved why she belonged on the top of the podium. With a phenomenal routine coming after a fall, no less, Torrez matched teammate Audrey Davis's 9.9625 bringing home the Sooners first beam national title since 2014.

ANASTASIA WEBB

2021 HONDA CUP TOP THREE FINALIST | FIRST IN PROGRAM HISTORY

Anastasia Webb capped her incredible career at the University of Oklahoma as she was named a Top Three Finalist for the Honda Cup by the Collegiate Women's Sports Awards.

The Morton Grove, Ill., native became the first gymnast in program history to be named a Top Three Finalist. These three finalists for the program's top honor exemplify the very best attributes of all Honda Sports Award winners, including excellence and leadership in their sport, as well as outstanding academic achievement and community involvement. The Top Three Award began in 2009-10.

Since the introduction of the Top Three Award, only one other gymnast has been honored as a finalist (Kim Jacob, Alabama, 2014). Webb became just the second Sooner to be a top three finalist, joining softball's Keilani Ricketts who was a finalist in 2012 and the Honda Cup Winner in 2013.

Webb was just the ninth gymnast in NCAA history to earn three national titles in one season when she achieved the feat in 2021. Her three individual crowns rank third all-time in OU history. The Morton Grove, Ill., native claimed the all-around, vault and floor national championships with one of her best performances of the season.

The 2021 Big 12 Female Athlete of the Year, Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, Region 4 Gymnast of the Year and an AAI Finalist, Webb helped lead Oklahoma to an NCAA Runner-Up finish in her senior season. Along the way, she picked up All-America honors and was the only gymnast in the nation to earn first-team accolades on all four events and in the all-around. Webb now has 20 career All-America honors to her name to rank second all-time in OU history.

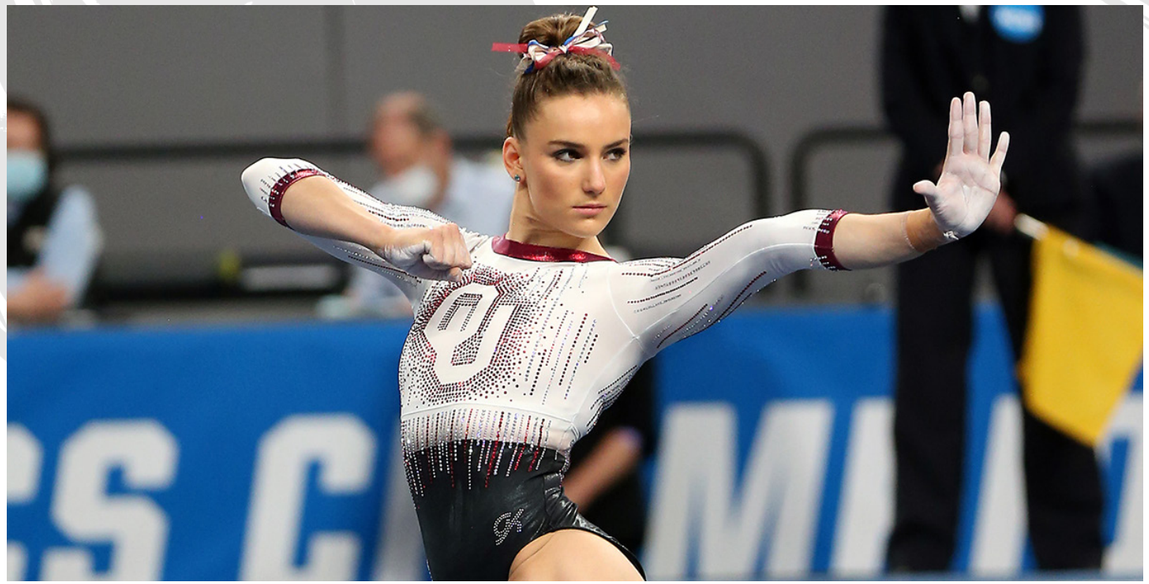
In 2021, Webb earned four perfect 10s with two on vault and one each on bars and beam. She earned a career high of 39.850 in the all-around as she racked up 33 career event titles. Webb now ranks second all-time in OU history with 67 event wins.
Webb competed in every single meet of her OU career, picking up nine All-Big 12 team accolades, three individual Big 12 crowns and two major Big 12 awards. The No. 1 ranked gymnast in the nation on vault in 2021, Webb also excelled in the classroom as a three-time Academic All-Big 12 First Team selection. She was a 2021 Academic All-District selection and a 2021 CoSIDA Academic All-American, the first since 2014.

A member of OU's team that claimed the 2019 NCAA Championship, Webb was a vital part of OU's success. During her OU career, the Sooners secured an NCAA top-two finish each year, earned two consecutive NCAA Regional titles and two straight Big 12 Conference Championships.

Webb was 100 percent in participation, having competed in every single meet during her career. She boasts a hit percentage of 95.0, nailing 156 of 164 career routines. Webb competed in the all-around in 47 of her 54 career meets and competed at least three events in 53 of 54. She never missed an opportunity to compete on bars or beam, competing those two events in all 54 career meets.

As a senior, she set her career highs left and right. She recorded perfect 10s on beam and vault, a career-high of 9.975 on bars and a 9.9625 on floor. Her all-around career high sits at an incredible 39.850. Currently,

In 2018, Webb became just the third freshman in program history to earn a perfect score on any event with a 10.0 on beam. She was named the 2018 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year after her breakout season that saw her named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week seven times. She was also the Big 12 champion on floor.



MAGGIE NICHOLS

2020 AAI AWARD WINNER | FIRST IN PROGRAM HISTORY

Maggie Nichols became the first Oklahoma women's gymnast to capture the prestigious AAI Award in 2020.

Often called the "Heisman Trophy" of women's gymnastics, the AAI Award is voted on by NCAA women's gymnastics college head coaches with six finalists selected. The award is presented to the most outstanding senior female gymnast in the country. Nichols was chosen out of six finalists, including Kennedi Edney (LSU), Taylor Houchin (Nebraska), Maddie Karr (Denver), Mollie Korth (Kentucky) and Kyla Ross (UCLA).

The Little Canada, Minn., native was Oklahoma's ninth consecutive finalist for the AAI award, joining Megan Ferguson (2012), Brie Olson (2013), Taylor Spears (2014), Erica Brewer (2015), Haley Scaman (2016), Chayse Capps (2017), AJ Jackson (2018) and Brenna Dowell (2019).

A member of OU's 2017 and 2019 National Championship teams, Nichols was a key component of Oklahoma's dominance during her four years as a Sooner. During her illustrious career, the Sooners secured two national championships, a runner-up finish, three consecutive regional finals and three straight Big 12 Championships.

After winning a gold medal at the 2015 Women's World Championships and competing at the U.S. Olympic Trials, Nichols left the elite world to join the Sooners in 2017 and lead them to their third national title as she became the first gymnast in NCAA history to score a perfect 10 on balance beam in the team finals.

Nichols boasts a hit percentage of 98.9, nailing 180 of her 182 collegiate routines. As a sophomore and junior, she hit 100 percent of her routines. She boasts the fourth-highest all-around score in NCAA history with a 39.925, set in 2017.

After setting a career-best all-around score of 39.925 in 2017, Nichols added three other scores of 39.900 in the all-around. She is one of seven gymnasts to reach 39.900 but is the only gymnast in NCAA history with more than one score of 39.900 or better. Nichols holds four of the top 10 spots in the all-time all-around score list. Her 39.925 ranks fourth, while her three marks of 39.900 are tied for fifth.

The list of accolades Nichols garnered over her four years is extensive. She was a six-time individual national champion, 13-time NCAA All-American and 17-time WCGA All-American. Nichols joined an exclusive club in 2019 as she became just the sixth gymnast in NCAA history to win back-to-back all-around titles at the NCAA Championship. She won at least one individual title in each of her seasons at OU. Nichols owns two titles on bars, two in the all-around, one on vault and one on floor. She also has a runner-up finish on bars (2019) and beam (2018).

In 2019, Nichols was named the Honda Sport Award Winner for women's gymnastics and was a finalist in all four years of her career. She was a two-time South Central Region Gymnast of the Year in both 2017 and 2018. Nichols was a six-time Big 12 individual champion and won an individual title on all four events and the all-around. She was the 2017 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year along with being named the 2018 and 2020 Big 12 Gymnast of the Year. She earned 17 All-Big 12 honors and is a 24-time Big 12 weekly award winner.

Nichols rewrote the OU record books from the minute she first stepped on campus. After being just the second freshman to ever score a perfect 10 on any event, Nichols went one step further by securing a perfect 10 on every single event to secure a "Gym Slam." Not only that, she was the first athlete in NCAA history to complete not one, but two "Gym Slams" after securing a perfect score on every event as a sophomore. Her 22 perfect scores are an OU program record. Nichols also boasts the program record for event titles with 148 and holds the record on bars (35), beam (30) and the all-around (32).

As a freshman, Nichols picked up her first national title on uneven bars, joining an elite squad of OU gymnasts. Her sophomore season, she added three more titles including her first all-around title, a second title on bars and first on floor. As a junior, she set the program record for national titles won with six as she defended her all-around title and earned a national title on vault. Before her career was ended due to COVID-19, Nichols needs just a title on beam to become just the second gymnast to win a national title on every event and the all-around. The senior ranks third in NCAA history with her six career national titles.

Nichols was not only an incredible gymnast on the floor but has been an inspiration to the entire gymnastics' community. In 2018, she came forward as "Athlete A" in the USA Gymnastics scandal involving Larry Nassar. Nichols' courage and bravery to release her statement just days before the season was set to start garnered her the 2019 NCAA Inspiration Award. Since coming forward, she has continued to be an inspiration and role model to so many in the gymnastics world and beyond.

ALL-AMERICANS

SINCE AMY PRIEST EARNED THE FIRST ALL-AMERICAN DISTINCTION AT OU IN 1985, 212 ALL-AMERICANS HAVE COMPETED FOR THE CRIMSON AND CREAM. THE MOST DECORATED ALL-AMERICAN IN OU HISTORY IS 2020 GRADUATE MAGGIE NICHOLS. NICHOLS WAS A FIVE-TIME ALL-AMERICAN IN 2017, 2018 AND 2019, BRINGING HER TOTAL TO 18 IN HER ILLUSTRIOUS CAREER. IN 2021, ANASTASIA WEBB AND OLIVIA TRAUTMAN JOINED AN ELITE GROUP AS THEY EACH EARNED FIVE ALL-AMERICA HONORS. ONLY FIVE SOONERS HAVE ACCOMPLISHED THE FEAT, INCLUDING KELLY GARRISON, CHAYSE CAPPS AND NICHOLS.
